President's Message

RACHEL JORDAN
CBJ PRESIDENT

A Dedication to Learning, A Commitment to the Future

Dear Friends,

As the shofar sounded on Rosh Hashanah, we welcomed not only a new year but also a new chapter in the life of our congregation. Together, we dedicated and named our religious school for our beloved congregant Barbara Robbins, affirming our commitment to Jewish learning for our children and generations to come. It was a joyful reminder that our synagogue is built on vision, generosity, and the strength of our shared values.

Although I am President of Congregation Beth Judea, I am also a parent. Both my sons are “graduates” of our religious school. My older son Emmet, now a sophomore in college and active in Hillel, continues his Jewish journey solidly built on the foundations of Judaism and community he learned here at CBJ. My younger son, Jacob (aka JJ) – age 16, now proudly serves as a madrich—an assistant teacher—in our religious school. I have seen firsthand the warmth, the learning, and the sense of Jewish pride that happens within these walls and carries forward into early adulthood. Simply put, the religious school at CBJ is exceptional.

But a strong school requires continued investment—in classrooms, in teachers, in curriculum, supplies, and technology, along with a physical space that fosters learning and community. Four years ago, the leadership at CBJ recognized that while our religious school program was excellent, tuition to cover religious school costs was becoming a barrier for attendance. A family with two children in school was paying close to $3000 a year in tuition. Enrollment was declining. With vision and determination, Rabbi Zimbalist and past presidents, including our immediate past president Adam Barshefsky, created Project 613.

Named for the number of mitzvot found in the Torah, 613 dollars became the new flat tuition rate for synagogue members with children in grades 1-7. Kindergarten is free. A handful of generous congregants came together to raise the funds to launch this new tuition structure in 2023. Thanks to their generosity, the number of new students in our religious school has grown. Now, with the gift from the Robbins family in honor of Barbara, Project 613 is secured for many years to come.

President's Message

In addition, this gift helps us face the reality of a building in need of renewal and revitalization. The school wing, where so much of our children's Jewish learning takes place, needs updates and modernization to the physical space. The Robbins family gift serves as a cornerstone of our upcoming capital campaign—named Eit Ratzon, "The Time is Now." This campaign, which you will be hearing more about soon, will launch in November. When complete, the campaign will allow us to revitalize our school classroom space. We plan to upgrade the aging floor, ceiling, and bathrooms. We will add new and brighter lighting, and we will convert rooms to serve multipurpose functions that can accommodate additional usage such as preschool education programs, teen youth group social events, and space for small prayer gatherings.

With an affordable, high-quality education and revitalized learning space, everyone who walks into our religious school will be touched by the Robbins family's legacy of learning, generosity, and commitment to Jewish life.

On behalf of the board of directors, our clergy, staff, and the entire synagogue family, I want to thank Barbara Robbins, her children Larry and Ellen, and their entire family. May this dedication be a blessing to them, and to every child who will grow within these walls. We are deeply grateful.

A special thank you as well to Rabbi Zimbalist—gifts like this happen because of the trust and admiration inspired by his leadership.

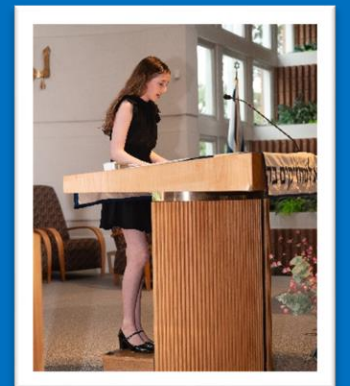

You will find the newly unveiled name and beautiful logo in the stairwell entrance to the school.

G'mar Chatimah Tovah.

-Rachel

Congregation Beth Judea Mission Statement

Congregation Beth Judea is a welcoming egalitarian synagogue whose mission is to create a warm and inviting home that serves the lifelong spiritual, educational and fellowship needs of our members.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

A Message from the Principal of Your Religious School, The Barbara Robbins School for Jewish Learning

BRIAN SERLE
RELIGIOUS SCHOOL
PRINCIPAL

Parents, as many of you have seen, Jewish education at Beth Judea is very much experiential and hands-on. Your students get to hear the sound of the Shofar on many occasions during the High Holidays, to shake the lulav and etrog in our Sukkah during Sukkot, and (above) get rid of their “sins” in our backyard pond and look forward to a better New Year.

I am so excited to be the leader of our school during my first High Holidays at Beth Judea. We were able to accommodate many families who wanted to pray in the Sanctuary, while their kids had a fun and meaningful experience downstairs in our school. I am so grateful for the programs implemented by our wonderful Cantor over her past four years here.

We are also so fortunate to have our leaders and teachers teaching and experiencing Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur together in our school.

What's next?

First, Yom Kippur is this week. For Kol Nidre, our youngest students – kindergarten, first, and second grade – will have a program downstairs, while grades 3 through 7 will be with their families at the Kol Nidre service. This once-a-year service is meaningful and beautiful, and it must be experienced together. On Yom Kippur, we have a full youth service program in our school wing from 10:20am – 12:30pm.

Next week comes Sukkot. All our students will lovingly decorate our community Sukkah. All students will have a wonderful snack together in the Sukkah and will have a chance to shake the etrog and lulav and recite the prayers.

The following week is Simchat Torah. In this Torah parade, your students will march and dance with the Torah, with their families, in joyous song and dance. We celebrate the ending of the Torah reading, and the beginning of a new Torah reading cycle, beginning with B'reishit, Genesis.

October 24-25 - our 5th, 6th, & 7th grades will enjoy ShabbabaFest. This overnight Kallah is part of our religious school curriculum. Our students will join with students from other area congregations for an amazing overnight Shabbat experience. Marc Sender, Cantor Bat-Sarah, Parker Weber, Sara Reid, and I – and other leaders in the Jewish community - will ensure your students have an amazing time!

On Sunday, October 26, there will be class. However, those students who attend ShabbabaFest will not be expected to attend Religious School that Sunday.

Great news - there is still time for the Early Bird Discount!

Please let us know if there is anything we can do to help your children increase their learning success and joy!

Olivia Erin
Chertow

Olivia Erin (לאה חיה) Chertow will be called to the Torah as a Bat Mitzvah on Saturday, November 1, 2025.

Olivia is a seventh grader at Hawthorn Middle School South in Vernon Hills. She loves to dance, swim, run, and do gymnastics. In her spare time, she also likes to create art — from pottery to jewelry — and loves to get together with friends and family. She especially enjoys spending time with her little brother, Jacob.

For her Mitzvah Project, Olivia decided to give back to Congregation Beth Judea and its religious school by purchasing and assembling baskets filled with essential classroom items and school supplies. She consulted a variety of people at CBJ to identify those items most needed. Olivia plans to use the baskets as centerpieces at her Kiddush before donating all of them to the religious school.

Olivia is looking forward to sharing her special day with her parents, Lauren and David; brother Jacob; grandparents Donna and Bruce Leeds and Roselyn and Wayne Chertow; and her many aunts, uncles, and cousins. She is also excited to celebrate with extended family and friends —many of whom will be traveling from out of town.

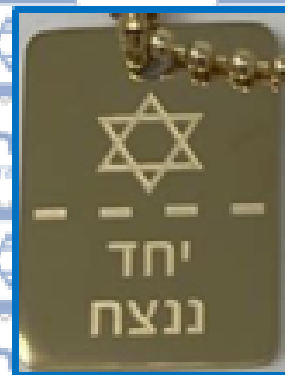

Olivia would like to thank Mrs. Kim Abern for all of her unwavering support and meticulous preparation. She also wants to express her sincere gratitude to her former teacher, Mrs. Rosalie Koblick, and her CBJ teachers for providing her with an education in Hebrew and Jewish history and values. Finally, Olivia wishes to share her appreciation for Rabbi Zimbalist, Cantor Bat-Sarah, and Ms. Sara Reid for their guidance and encouragement.

The sun and moon unchanging do obey
The laws that never cease or night or day.
Appointed signs are they to Jacob's seed
That life eternal hath been them decreed.
And though, O Lord; thy left hand dealeth pain,
Thy right shall lead them back to joy again.
Let not despair oppress their quailing heart,
Though radiant Fortune from their midst depart.
But let this constant faith their soul uphold,
That in the Book of Life their name's enrolled
For all eternity: nor shall they cease
While night and day do alternate in peace.

Men's Club

MEN'S CLUB

September was a quiet month for Men's Club, but things will be picking up in October.

On Sunday afternoon, October 12th, we will have our annual Steak and Scotch in the Sukkah. Look for the event flyer in the synagogue weekly email or contact me for more details.

We're looking for volunteers to help take down the Sukkah on Sunday morning, October 19th, (and if you have tools and a ladder, please bring them along).

On Wednesday evening, October 22nd, we'll be offering a signature program of the FJMC (Federation of Jewish Men's Club - the umbrella group overseeing the Men's Clubs). Called Hearing Men's Voices (HMV), it's a safe space for men to get together to talk about issues important to men. More details will be forthcoming.

Finally, on Wednesday, October 29th at 8:00, our Hebrew Literacy class, led by Jerry Sakol and Alan Marcus, begins. If you've ever wanted to learn Hebrew or just refresh your memory and brush up your skills, this is your chance.

Looking ahead to November, we plan on having our first Tap the Torah of the New Year on Wednesday, November 5th, and our increasingly popular Guys Night Out. Keep an eye out for details.

On behalf of myself and the entire Men's Club, we'd like to wish you all a Shana Tovah, and a year of health, happiness, and peace.

Sisterhood

We hope everyone had a wonderful new year and a meaningful fast. The new year brings families together and friends from near and far. People celebrate with those they love asking for forgiveness. Just asking for forgiveness is not enough. In addition, you must think of ways to change your behavior and become better throughout the next year. We also thank them with gratitude.

In Sisterhood, we had an amazing membership dinner headed by Lori Finn and her committee. We made za'atar seasoning that each woman took home to share with her family. There were wonderful raffle prizes, and it was great to come together and socialize.

On Tuesday, October 21, there will be a Rosh Chodesh Club discussion. It will be led by Cantor Bat-Sarah. Look for the flyer in the weekly email. There will be 2 others later in the year. These events support Torah Fund, which is a Women's League's fundraiser to help the 5 conservative seminaries around the world. These seminaries have rabbinical, cantorial, and Jewish educator learning opportunities. Donations for participating should be sent directly to Torah Fund through the JTS website (please mention that you are a member of the Congregation Beth Judea Sisterhood), but please remember to also RSVP to Sisterhood.

In addition, there will be a Judaic Arts program on Thursday, November 6, 2025 and will focus on Jewish Broadway. Rabbi Anita Silvert will speak about early to mid-20th century Jewish Lyricists of the Golden Age of Broadway. Hannah Whitney and Marilyn Victor are working hard to create an exciting educational event.

Sisterhood Shabbat will take place in January. We are looking for women to read both Hebrew and English parts, and especially Torah readings. Please contact Marcie Marcus at 847-542-6208 to be an important part of this beautiful tradition. We look forward to hearing from you!

The annual Channukah Gift Shop Pop Up will take place on Tuesday, November 18 from 2-7pm. All are welcome, so share this information with congregants and non-congregants alike.

The gift shop is looking for women to help in their "sales department" on Tuesday afternoons and Sunday mornings; during religious school. Please reach out to Ann Lerman if you would like to be involved.

CBJ Sisterhood has a dedicated group of Book Club ladies who meet monthly at 8pm on Zoom. The next selection is The Lion Women of Tehran by Marjan Kamili on October 22. The November 17 selection is The Pact (Blood Sisters) by Roberta Kagan, and the December 18 selection is Every Good Man by Sara Confino Goodman. Please contact Andrea Heiger for the zoom link and to answer your questions.

We have meetings every first Tuesday of the month, except in October due to the holidays. The next meeting is November 4. Every Sisterhood member is encouraged to come.
