St. Aloysius School Civility Policy

Standards and Expected Behavior

St. Aloysius School strives to promote an environment in which all members of the school community show civility, courtesy, and respect for others.

The school understands that well-meaning people may disagree on an issue and have a right to express their own opinion. Nonetheless, we must maintain an environment in which people can feel safe, secure, and mutually respected.

St. Aloysius School expects that all members of our community - parents, students, teachers and staff to interact with each other in a courteous and respectful manner whether in person, on the phone, or in written communication. St. Aloysius School embraces the following:

- Respect for faculty, staff, students, parents, and all school property, as well as policies, rules and regulations detailed in the school handbook.
- Promoting our faith-based values through the thoughtful exchange of ideas and diverse opinions with tolerance, integrity, dignity, and respect.
- Abstaining from actions, words and written communications that are disrespectful, intimidating, bullying, demeaning or hostile to another person.

In any instance where a student, parent, faculty member or other member of the public behaves in a way that is offensive, abusive, or threatening, a polite warning will be given. If the behavior continues during a meeting, conversation or written correspondence, the communication will be terminated.

St. Aloysius School is a community rooted in Catholic teachings and values, devoted to academic excellence, and committed to serving others. By showing all members of the school community courtesy and respect, we can work together to promote a safe and secure school environment for everyone. This will ensure that our students achieve success in the classroom and lessons that will last for a lifetime.
