From: Rev. Jeff Foels,

Reaching out with our Partners

On September 10th, we did a Park and Ride Appreciation Day – reaching out and saying hello to the folks that use our lot and ride the Plymouth MetroLink into downtown or the U of M each day. We had coffee and donuts, water and fruit. From 5:30 on, we have people arriving in our lot each day to go about their days of work and school – over a hundred, by the time you add in folks who get dropped off as well as those who park their cars here. Thank you to those who got up to greet our neighbors! I hope it becomes a regular event.

Reaching out in care and consideration of our neighbors is an important part of our life as a church and as a people of faith. I also see that resonating with our partners with Bloom. Here are people in our community who are so in need of good quality child care and who are able to find it here, as a part of our partnership with them. This Sunday, September 22nd, will be our Bloom Sunday at PPC. We'll hear a little from Melissa about how things are going, and all are invited to sign up to attend the Bloom Gala on September 27th. As partners, we're able to connect even more with showing care and consideration for those in our community.

As we seek to be good neighbors – indeed, as we seek to follow Christ's call to “love our neighbor as ourselves,” I am excited to be reaching out in community and partnership together as a church.

Wishing you all a lovely beginning of fall! ~Jeff

Growing in Faith Together

SUMMERWOOD MINISTRY GIFT (Growing in Faith Together) small group has been leading a monthly Bible study with residents of Summerwood Presbyterian Homes for a long time. About 10 residents participate regularly. Over time the number of PPC people available to participate has declined. Do you have time to help lead the study, meeting once a month, from 11 a.m. to about 12:30 p.m. (includes a free lunch) on the second Tuesday of the month? We have been using the Horizons Bible studies published for Presbyterian Women; a study of the 10 Commandments will begin in September.

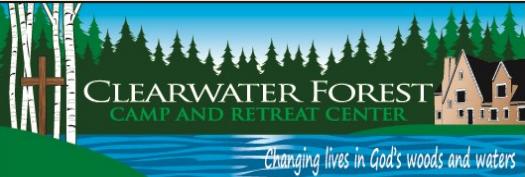

Contact Lu Wilmot for details.

Volunteers needed to provide Fellowship Treats After the Service
It is nice to have a cup of coffee and a treat after the service, and you can help by volunteering to bring a treat and prepare the coffee. The Deacons and Bakers Group each handle one Sunday per month, which leaves 24 opportunities for members to help out each year. There is a sign-up sheet in the narthex and also on the church website—if every family volunteers one week each year, we can ensure that there are treats every week to enhance our fellowship after church.

The class will be taught by Dr. John Braun, retired Gustavus professor, and will "read" the familiar opening chapters of the book of Genesis through the less familiar eyes of Biblical scholars. Plan now to join this ticklish conversation about these ancient stories of the beginnings of things.

Peace & Global Witness Offering

October 6. Any gifts you make to the Peace & Global Witness Offering will enable the church to promote the Peace of Christ by addressing systems of conflict and injustice across the world.

Our congregations will utilize up to 25% of this Offering to connect with global witness of Christ's peace.

Mid councils will retain an additional 25% for ministries of peace and reconciliation. The remaining 50% is used by the Presbyterian Mission Agency to advocate for peace and justice in cultures of violence, including our own, through collaborative projects of education and Christian witness.

Sometimes it feels like there is nothing we can do in these troubled times: here is a way to give a little to make a big difference.

The Mission Ministry thanks you!

Church Budget and Offering Update

With summer vacations and weekends at the cabin, we have fallen behind over the summer on our pledge revenues for the operating budget. We are in the second year of a three-year building fund campaign for our mortgage, and we have also fallen behind those building fund revenues. We would appreciate if it you would make efforts to catch up on your pledges. Thank you for your help!
