From: Rev. Jeff Foels,

Every year, the ticking of our clocks and the turning of our calendars bring about significant moments just through their uniqueness. There is truly nothing special about January 1st, as different than January 15th or July 20th or November 1st. It is basically just another day. And yet, we place a special significance on the new day, the new year. It's the significance that comes with the hope of a fresh start.

Throughout the world, people celebrate the new year with traditions that are supposed to bring luck, favor and goodness into the year. Many of us practice making resolutions to see through changes we would make in our lives. All too often these can soon turn into challenges for us – a place where we get down on ourselves and feel defeated, hopes turned into despairing, however small.

This year, as you might make resolutions, I encourage you toward those that help you live more fully into who you are called to be – a beloved child of God. Resolve to forgive yourself. See yourself through the eyes of a gracious and loving God who rejoices in your living. Find in scripture or prayer a new word that can stay with you in the day or week or year ahead. Love. Peace. Loving-kindness and charity. Grace. Forgiveness. These too, are the gifts of God for the people of God.

Happy New Year! Jeff
