

BIO: Laine Caspi - LAPD Devonshire PALS Laine Caspi has led by example and inspires others through her encouragement to become involved in their community. During COVID, she trained volunteers and oversaw the assembly of 3,500 face shields for local hospitals. Working with the Rotary Club and LA Council District 12, she delivered thousands of N95 and surgical masks to Valley hospitals. To demonstrate gratitude to frontline workers, she delivered weekly lunches to Northridge and West Hills Hospitals.

Some of her accomplishments include her work on behalf of the National Suicide Hotline; organizing the largest single-day blood drive in Los Angeles for four consecutive years; serving on the American Youth Soccer Organization (AYSO) board; volunteering with the Veterans of Foreign Wars; working as a counselor for the Rotary Youth Leadership Camp; and serving on the Community Outreach Committee for Sunshine Canyon Landfill. She has also been a past president of Granada Hills Rotary; a past president of the Granada Hills Chamber of Commerce as well as a current board member of the Granada Hills Community Foundation and current president for LAPD Devonshire PALS.
