

BIO: Vickie Bourdas Martinez - CEO, Greater Sherman Oaks Chamber of Commerce Vickie Bourdas Martinez' resume is a catalog of community service to the San Fernando Valley. Past board president for LAPD Devonshire PALS (Police Activity League Supporters) and current board member; membership advisor for Alpha Xi Delta at CSUN which is dedicated to fostering women's' growth and leadership; charter member and past president of San Fernando Valley Jaycees; board chair and member of the North Valley Regional Chamber of Commerce and current chief executive officer for the Greater Sherman Oaks Chamber of Commerce.

Recently she successfully helmed the Sherman Oaks Street Fair's 30th anniversary which delivered family entertainment, food and activities for more than 100,000 attendees. She accomplished this in the face of the Street Fair's two-year Covid hiatus.

She has been a dedicated advocate for women, law enforcement and youth. In all of her roles, Vickie is described as a deeply committed and effective advocate. She cultivates places for businesses, nonprofits and volunteers to gather with like-minded partners and create new growth.