The History

OF EWTN MEDIA MISSIONARIES

EWTN launched 24 - hour programming in 1987

Enthusiastic Catholics began to conduct signature campaigns in their cities and persuade local cable companies to add EWTN full-time to their channel line-ups.

These volunteer campaigns spread like wildfire and soon it became evident to Mother Angelica that the

HOLY SPIRIT

was moving literally thousands of interested supporters to help the Network reach more souls.

Now the Media Missionary program continues to raise awareness of EWTN through TV, radio, online, mobile, and in print. At a time when the Network reaches more souls worldwide than ever before, we are grateful to be

10,000 STRONG

Just as in the early days of the founding of EWTN, we rely on passionate volunteers to be our hands and feet at local parishes and in local communities. The goal of a Media Missionary is to make Christ known and our means of evangelization is EWTN—the global Catholic network that is truly “everywhere.” Identifying your talents and inspired passions is a great start! You can expect to receive tips, downloads and advice tailored to the areas of interest you selected when you first signed up. You can change your involvement at any time, or add another volunteer area if you feel called to do so.

PRAYER & WORK

Prayer is essential to the work of evangelization, so we've developed a spiritual resource for our Media Missionaries! Pray with our Devotional Guide—compiled by the Franciscan Missionaries of the Eternal Word.
