Parental Consent

I give my daughter permission to participate in Platte Canyon High School's Volleyball Skills League & Tournament. I understand that with any athletic activity there is a potential for injury. I certify that my child has no injury that would limit her participation in the camp and has passed a physical examination in the past twelve months. I also authorize the director of the team to act for me in any emergency requiring medical attention. I hereby release and exonerate the camp and its employees from any actions that may have caused injuries incurred in the camp or on the way to it. I have medical coverage and will be responsible for any medical charges related to the camp attendance.
