Collin Lee – YWAM – PRAISE – they had a team of 15 middle schoolers on a busy walking bridge handing out hot chocolate, sharing the Gospel & praying for them – a 60 yr old man was walking the bridge and came in contact with every middle schooler – he shared that he was an atheist, but felt like he was encountering God through these students in a way he never thought was possible – encouraged for his community and his future & felt the need to seek answers about who God is, teams also partnered with local Louisville ministries for 30 days straight (including caring for the homeless, sex trafficking prevention & relief for women & children in danger, 3 local park/community city programs we partner with (not Christian), and 2 ministries with children & families from Muslim backgrounds or several African tribes
