Word of Encouragement:

Isaiah 43:18-19

“Forget the former things; do not dwell on the past. See, I am doing a new thing! Now it springs up; do you not perceive it?”

Happy New Year! God has a new year for us with continued and new blessings from him if we open our hearts to receive them. I am excited to see how God is going to bless SCCS in the second half of the year. My prayer for our families is that we will open our hearts and our lives to each other and pour out blessings as a family should and how God desires. I encourage you, during the second half of the school year, to reach out to someone new or someone whom God has laid on your heart, get to know them, and support them throughout the school year. If we all put forth an effort to build someone up, God will bless us tremendously and allow the freedom for someone else to build us up as well.

Friday will be our 2nd quarter awards ceremony. An email will be sent out with specific times for each class if you desire to attend. The day will be set up as it was for 1st quarter awards, but we will begin the individual class ceremonies at 8:30 a.m. It is an early dismissal, but classes will resume their regular schedule after the teacher presents the awards.

Please let me know if you have any questions or concerns. My door is always open for anyone who has anything to discuss.

Serving you in Christ,

Rebecca Whitecotton
