God is Savior:

John 3:16-17 – God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but to save the world through him.

This is a familiar verse that most of us have heard and have even memorized. But, think about the significance and the impact of what this verse is expressing. If Jesus had not come down to earth to live a blameless, sinless life, die on the cross, and rise on the third day to eternal glory, just think of the state we would be in. We would be condemned to eternal punishment: an eternity without the love, presence, and goodness of God. Think of an eternity without any goodness or light...

I am thankful beyond measure for the gift of the sacrifice that Jesus willingly gave us so that we can live in the presence of God if we would only believe and put our trust and hope in him. Thank you, Jesus!

April 16 is Classical Recitations. It's one of my favorite events of the year. I love to see the students recite scripture, poetry, and literature. I look forward to seeing you all at Yates Thagard at 6:30.

Progress reports will be going out on Thursday, April 18th, right before we celebrate Easter.

SCCS is going through the accreditation process once again. The ACCS accreditation team will be on the grammar school campus on April 24. Please keep your teachers in your prayers.

Please let me know if you have any questions or concerns. My door is always open for anyone who has anything to discuss.

Serving you in Christ,

Rebecca Swain
