Word of Encouragement:

Our Mighty God is Father

Matthew 5:44-45

“Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, that you may be sons of your Father in heaven. He causes his sun to rise on the evil and the good and sends rain on the righteous and the unrighteous.”

God is good all the time. It is especially wonderful when we get to see his promises come true in our lives. Many of you saw the rainbow that appeared in the sky on the Wednesday before Hurricane Florence hit. Many of us at the school took it as a sign that our school would be protected during the days that would follow. We trusted and believed, and He proved faithful. The Whispering Pines campus had no damage or flooding. However, other schools in the region did not fare as well, so please remember them in your prayers. Additionally, let us also keep close those individuals who have sustained damage and even lost homes or loved ones. I thank those parents who came out in the heat of the day to fill sandbags to place in front of our eighteen or so doors. It was hard work, and I believe it helped keep the waters at bay. Thank you for your dedicated service.

Please remember that we are nearing the end of the quarter, so help us by encouraging students to finish strong. Look for report cards to be emailed October 5. This year will be different in how we organize The Quarterly Awards Ceremonies. Each classroom teacher will present the Honor Roll Awards and the Fruit of the Spirit Award in her own classroom. More information about the actual day and times will be emailed. We will have our Fourth Quarter Awards Ceremony off site as we have done in the past.

Enjoy your Fall Break. Relish in the time spent with friends and family.

Please let me know if you have any questions or concerns. My door is always open for anyone who has anything to discuss.

Serving you in Christ,

Rebecca Whitecotton
