Word of Encouragement:

Deuteronomy 6:4-9

“Hear, O Israel: The LORD our God, the Lord is one. Love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength. These commandments that I give you today are to be upon your hearts. Impress them on your children. Talk about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down, and when you get up. Tie them as symbols on your hands and bind them on your foreheads. Write them on the doorframes of your houses and on your gates.”

This is your ultimate job as a Christian parent: to teach your children the ways of the LORD. When they wake up, when they lie down, when they go about the business of their day, you are to guide and teach them about how to live a life worthy of our God. If you do this, you and your children will be blessed.

Unfortunately, you do not see them all day long every day. But, you have a desire to follow and live the parental mandate that the LORD has given you. This, then, is why you send your child(ren) to Sandhills Classical Christian School. Not only do you desire a school with great academics that will prepare each child for his/her future, but you desire a school that can come along side of you and help prepare and shepherd the hearts of each one of your children to help them live a life for the LORD.

We, as well as each of you as parents, have a very serious calling on our lives. We are proud and pleased to partner with you to guide and shape the next generation to impact the world for Jesus Christ. Thank you for sending your children to SCCS and allowing us the privilege to teach your treasured possessions.

Please let me know if you have any questions or concerns. My door is always open for anyone who has anything to discuss.

Serving you in Christ,

Rebecca Whitecotton
