

And Joshua said to them: “Cross over before the ark of the Lord your God into the midst of the Jordan, and each one of you take up a stone on his shoulder, according to the number of the tribes of the children of Israel, that this may be a sign among you when your children ask in time to come, saying, ‘What do these stones mean to you?’ Then you shall answer them that the waters of the Jordan were cut off before the ark of the covenant of the Lord; when it crossed over the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan were cut off. And these stones shall be for a memorial to the children of Israel forever.” Joshua 4:5-7.

God directed Joshua to build a memorial to the great things the Lord had done. As we build the new school, we in a sense will be building a memorial to what God has done. From humble beginnings, SCCS has grown into a vibrant, Christian example in the community. For years to come, and long after we are all gone, the new school can be a memorial to God’s blessings. More importantly, each and every student that passes through our school can be a memorial for Christ in their daily lives. Every time one of our students, says a kind word, politely addresses an elder, or serves others in the community, they will bring glory to God. We should never forget that is what classical Christian education is all about, and this is why we are doing what we are doing!
