

Grammar School Letter

Dear SCCS Parents,

Word of Encouragement:

Luke 2:11

Today in the town of David a Savior has been born to you; he is Christ the Lord.

What an amazing time of year we are in. Christ's birth is where our salvation story begins. Ponder the significance of God coming to earth from his heavenly realm as a baby. Living life as a child, a young man, and then becoming a man. Brutally dying a death he did not deserve, all for the forgiveness of sin and saving all who believe in him.

My prayer for you is that God will fill you with the joy that only comes from knowing him. May God bless you this Christmas season and keep you safe as you travel.

I would like to wish Dr. Marshall a farewell and many blessings on his new adventure that God has called him to. He has been a blessing to us all and has helped SCCS grow and strengthen to the school we are now. He and his family will be greatly missed. Thank you Dr. Marshall.

Have a wonderful Christmas and New Year.

Please remember that my door is always open for you to come in and talk with me about anything.

Serving you in Christ,

Rebecca Whitecotton
