FEDERAL RESOURCES

- Paycheck Protection Program \(PPP\)

* This program is currently open and accepting new applications.

This loan program provides loan forgiveness for retaining employees by temporarily expanding the traditional SBA 7(a) loan program. It provides small businesses with funds in the form of loans to pay up to eight weeks of payroll costs including benefits. Funds can also be used to pay interest on mortgages, rent, and utilities.

- When to apply: Starting April 3, 2020, small businesses and sole proprietorships can apply. Starting April 10, 2020, independent contractors and self-employed individuals can apply.
- How to apply: You can apply through any existing SBA 7(a) lender or through any federally insured depository institution, federally insured credit union, and Farm Credit System institution that is participating. Other regulated lenders will be available to make these loans once they are approved and enrolled in the program. You should consult with your local lender as to whether it is participating. The application form is available here.
- Who is eligible: Small businesses with 500 or fewer employees—including 501 (c)(3) nonprofits, veterans organizations, tribal concerns, self-employed individuals, sole proprietorships, and independent contractors—are eligible. Businesses with more than 500 employees are eligible in certain industries. For more information about eligibility, please see section 1 in this guide from the U.S. Chamber of Commerce.

Businesses will be able to apply if they were harmed by COVID-19 between February 15, 2020 and June 30, 2020. This program is retroactive to February 15, 2020 in order to help bring workers who may have already been laid off back onto payrolls. Loans are available through June 30, 2020.

- Conditions of loans: The Paycheck Protection Program can offer loans up to $10 million and with 100 percent loan forgiveness if a business sustains its pre-COVID-19 payroll levels through June 30, 2020. Funds are provided in the form of loans that will be fully forgiven when used for payroll costs, interest on mortgages, rent, and utilities (due to likely high subscription, at least 75% of the forgiven amount must have been used for payroll).

- Other things to know:

- No collateral or personal guarantees are required.
- Neither the government nor lenders will charge small businesses any fees
- To prepare yourself and understand what you're eligible for, please see the US Chamber of Commerce's Coronavirus Emergency Loans Small Business Guide and Checklist
- Overview of the PPP program

2. Economic Injury Disaster Loan \(EIDL\) Emergency Advance

* This program is currently not accepting new applications.

This loan advance will provide up to $10,000 of economic relief to businesses that are currently experiencing temporary difficulties. EIDL is an emergency loan program for federal disasters, including COVID-19. This program offers up to $2 million in assistance for fixed debts, payroll, and other account expenses with an interest rate of 3.75 percent for small businesses and 2.75 percent for nonprofits.

- What's new: The CARES Act opened EIDLs to more types of small businesses, made it easier to apply, and ensured that EIDLs smaller than $200,000 can be approved without a personal guarantee.
- Additional feature: Through the SBA Economic Injury Emergency Grant Program, businesses can receive an emergency advance of up to $10,000 to small businesses and private non-profits harmed by COVID-19 within three days of applying for an SBA EIDL.

- How to access the advance: Companies must first apply for an EIDL and then request the advance. The advance does not need to be repaid under any circumstance, and may be used to keep employees on payroll, to pay for sick leave, meet increased production costs due to supply chain disruptions, or pay business obligations, including debts, rent and mortgage payments.

- Who is eligible: Small businesses with fewer than 500 employees (including sole proprietors with or without employees), independent contractors, cooperatives and employee owned businesses, private non-profits and tribal small businesses impacted by COVID-19.

- How to apply: Use the SBA's application portal here.

- Need assistance with your application? OED provides technical assistance to businesses applying for this loan, this includes helping businesses navigate the application process and assemble the required documents. Businesses interested in these services, please complete the in-take survey and we will reach out to you within one business day. Fill out the intake survey. Learn more.

4. SBA Debt Relief The SBA is providing a financial reprieve to small businesses during the COVID-19 pandemic. Additional SBA Debt Relief Information

5. Economic impact payment information On March 30, the Treasury Department and the Internal Revenue Service announced that distribution of economic impact payments will be distributed automatically within the next three weeks, with no action required for most people. However, some taxpayers who typically do not file returns will need to submit a simple tax return to receive the economic impact payment.

- Who is eligible for the economic impact payment? Tax filers with adjusted gross income up to $75,000 for individuals and up to $150,000 for married couples filing joint returns will receive the full payment. For filers with income above those amounts, the payment amount is reduced by $5 for each $100 above the $75,000/$150,000 thresholds. Single filers with income exceeding $99,000 and $198,000 for joint filers with no children are not eligible. Social Security recipients and railroad retirees who are otherwise not required to file a tax return are also eligible and will not be required to file a return.

- Eligible taxpayers who filed tax returns for either 2019 or 2018 will automatically receive an economic impact payment of up to $1,200 for individuals or $2,400 for married couples and up to $500 for each qualifying child.

6. Tax return extension information Some people have not filed their 2019 tax returns, but that's OK. The filing deadline has been extended to July 15. The IRS also says that people who have filed or plan to can still expect to receive a refund if they are owed one.

7. Student loans To provide relief to student loan borrowers during the COVID-19 national emergency, federal student loan borrowers are automatically being placed in an administrative forbearance, which allows you to temporarily stop making your monthly loan payment. This suspension of payments will last until Sept. 30, 2020. NEW 4/21/20: If you have private student loans, Washington State has secured relief options with many private student loan servicers to expand on the protections the federal government granted to federal student loan borrowers. These new options stand to benefit thousands of Washington borrowers with privately held student loans. Under this new initiative, Washington borrowers with commercially-owned Federal Family Education Program Loans (FFELP) or privately held student loans who are struggling to make their payments due to the COVID-19 pandemic may be eligible for expanded relief. Borrowers in need of assistance should immediately contact their student loan servicer to learn about the options that are appropriate to their circumstances.
8. Fully refundable tax credit for businesses The CARES Act establishes a fully refundable tax credit for businesses of all size that are closed or distressed to help them keep workers on the payroll. The goal is to get those employees hired back or put on paid furlough to make sure they have jobs to return to. The credit covers to 50 percent of payroll on the first $10,000 of compensation, including health benefits, for each employee.
 - For employers with more than 100 full-time employees, the credit is for wages paid to employees when they are not providing services because of the coronavirus. Eligible employers with 100 or fewer full-time employees could use the deduction even if they aren't closed.
9. Families First Coronavirus Response Act Questions and Answers As provided under the legislation, the U.S. Department of Labor will be issuing implementing regulations. Additionally, as warranted, the Department will continue to provide compliance assistance to employers and employees on their responsibilities and rights under the FFCRA.
10. Moratoriums on evictions and foreclosures
 - A borrower with a federally backed mortgage experiencing financial hardship due to coronavirus may also request a forbearance for up to 180 days, which may be extended for another 180 days at the request of the borrower.
 - The law allows multifamily housing owners with a federally backed mortgage to request a forbearance for up to 30 days, which can be extended by another 60 days at the request of the borrower, on the condition that they agree not to evict tenants or charge tenants' late fees.
 - The bill also institutes a moratorium on filings for evictions for renters in homes covered by a federally backed mortgage for 120 days of enactment.
11. EXTENDED Health insurance enrollment: WA Special enrollment period Health Benefit Exchange Enrollment period now extended through May 8
12. Relief for HUD Section 108 Borrowers Impacted by Coronavirus Many communities used Section 108 funds to make loans to businesses undertaking economic development projects. 8. Working Washington Small Business Emergency Grants

Applications for the Working Washington Small Business Emergency Grants are now closed, due to overwhelming demand

Governor Inslee has created a Working Washington Small Business Emergency Grant program using a portion of the state's Strategic Reserve Fund (SRF). A limited number of grants (up to $10,000) are available to small businesses with up to 10 employees.

- The Process: Small businesses that qualify for the grant program will submit applications through the Tri-City Development Council (TRIDEC). TRIDEC will prioritize applications based on the severity of the impact the business is facing due to COVID-19, including from being forced to close by the government-mandated closures, social distancing measures or illness. Awards will be approved on a case-by-case basis and are dependent on the availability of funds. The objective is to support businesses through the crisis and enable them to retain as many employees as possible. Due to anticipated volumes, please allow 4 to 6 weeks for processing and disbursement of grants.

- Who is Eligible: Applicants should have been in business for at least one year. Businesses with up to 10 full-time employees (FTEs) may apply for a one-time grant of up to $10,000. Funding is not meant to help launch a business, but to support existing businesses who are specifically affected by the COVID-19 crisis and are vital members of their local community. Applicants are eligible to receive one Working Washington Grant award during the current budget cycle, which ends on 06/30/2021. The following expenses are not eligible: capitalized equipment, travel, office equipment, and computer software.
- Grants Awarded: TRIDEC will verify the size of candidate companies prior to submission. For each award, local economic/development organizations are encouraged to be judicious in discerning an appropriate and proportional amount based on necessity to the business and the business' importance to the local community so as to ensure that this emergency resource can be utilized by companies across communities in Washington. Note that payroll cannot be reimbursed via Working Washington grant program. Please direct all payroll needs to Employment Security Department.
- Approved grant expenditures: Grant funds can be used for operational expenses including rent, supplies/inventory, utility bills, etc. as well as consulting, marketing, and training. Applications must include a list of proposed expenses grants will be spent on. Applications without a list of proposed expenses will be considered incomplete. This reimbursement-based grant can assist with outstanding invoices dated March 1 and beyond.

10. Washington State Department of Financial Institutions - guide for families who need financial assistance including:

- Mortgage Assistance: If you do not have enough money to cover your mortgage payment, contact your lender immediately. Homeowners in distress may call DFI's toll-free number 1-877-RING-DFI (746-4334) to talk to a member of our team and to get assistance in how best to contact their mortgage servicer, and to learn more about their options.

- Paying Student Loans: If you're having trouble making payments, there may be assistance available to you. The CARES Act provides relief for most federal student loan borrowers. If you have private student loans, Washington State has secured relief options with many private student loan servicers to expand on the protections the federal government granted to federal student loan borrowers. These new options stand to benefit thousands of Washington borrowers with privately held student loans. Under this new initiative, Washington borrowers with commercially-owned Federal Family Education Program Loans (FFELP) or privately held student loans who are struggling to make their payments due to the COVID-19 pandemic may be eligible for expanded relief. Borrowers in need of assistance should immediately contact their student loan servicer to learn about the options that are appropriate to their circumstances.
- Paying Rent: If you are unable to make your full rent payment, contact your landlord immediately and try to work out an agreement. The Department of Housing and Urban Development offers counseling from organizations that can help you make the right decisions and point you towards the right resources. Governor Jay Inslee Announces Temporary Moratorium on Residential Evictions
- Paying Credit Cards: If you have seen a reduction in pay due to COVID-19 and are struggling to make your credit card or loan payments, contact your credit card company right away. Explain your situation and ask about hardship programs that may be available. Regulatory agencies have encouraged financial institutions to work with customers impacted by the coronavirus. Credit card companies and lenders may be able to offer you a number of options to help you. This could include waiving certain fees like ATM, overpayments, and late fees, as well as allowing you to delay, adjust, or skip some payments.
- Utilities Assistance: Governor Jay Inslee has called on all public utilities in Washington state to ensure the health and safety of their employees and the public by suspending disconnection tariffs for nonpayment during this emergency; waiving late fees for customers who are out of work or offering customers payment plans; and expanding bill assistance programs for customers who are economically impacted by this emergency. Many utility companies are already doing this. For assistance, contact your utility company.
 - Benton PUD
 - Franklin PUD
- Short Term and Emergency Loans: Consider your options before taking out a high cost short term loan. Talk with your creditors to negotiate more time to pay bills, borrow from friends or family, or explore low interest loans offered by local banks and credit unions. If you do take out a short term loan, make sure the lender is licensed with the Washington State Department of Financial Institutions and borrow only what you can afford to pay back.
- Financial Institutions Are Open: While the COVID-19 outbreak has closed many businesses, your local banks and credit unions remain committed to providing access to banking services.

- Offers for special services
- Updates of business hours
- Information about special precautions/closures
- Offers for takeout or delivery services
- Offers for online services or classes

CITY RESOURCES

Kennewick

Kennewick offers several initiatives to help support small businesses, working people, and vulnerable communities during the COVID-19 outbreak. To help residents, the City of Kennewick is Suspending Water Shut-Offs for non-payment of city utility bills. They are continuing to bill utility accounts on the regular two-month billing cycle and statements are due 15 days from the billing date. Late notices are being issued for accounts two weeks past due, which includes a $10 late fee when notices are processed. By contacting the City prior to an account going past due, the late notice would not issue and $10 late fee would not be assessed.

- Benton PUD has announced that it is suspending power utility shut-offs during this time.
- Kennewick School District is assisting with nutrition needs.

Pasco

Mayor Martinez signed two emergency declarations to help mitigate the impacts of COVID-19 on the Pasco community, which were ratified by the full City Council, as per the Pasco Municipal Code, on March 23. The orders are:

- Order 2020-001 provides for a variance in the City's sign code to allow restaurants more use of signs, including sandwich boards and banners, to advertise take-out or delivery services. Interested businesses can call Community Development for more information at (509) 545-3441.
- Order 2020-002 enacts a temporary moratorium on utility service shut-offs and late fees for City of Pasco customers during this emergency. However, customers are urged to call Customer Service at (509) 545-3448 to set-up a payment plan if they are having financial difficulties or for more information.
- City leaders and Pasco School Superintendent Michelle Whitney recorded a panel discussion this week on COVID-19; you can watch it at <https://bit.ly/PascoMayorUpdate>.
- Residents and businesses are encouraged to follow/like the City on Facebook and Twitter for the latest news.
