

Spirit Lake Native Youth Community Program Grant

A partnership between
Spirit Lake Tribe, Tate Topa Tribal School, Devils Lake Public Schools, Warwick Public School &
Northeast Education Services Cooperative

2019-2020 Project Report (Year Three of Four)

Projects conducted with both the Tate Topa Tribal School and Warwick Public School included:

- Steve Dunn Writing Workshop (8 educators, grades 7-8)
- Roads to Success college/career curriculum implementation (329 students, grades 6-8)
- RUReadyND implementation (329 students, grades 6-8)
- Virtual Job Shadow access (170 students and their educators, grades 7-8+)
- Business presentations in the schools (375 students, grades 5-8, and 37 businesses)
- College tours, business tours, the college/career keynote speaker, and the Gearing Up for Middle School student/family program were postponed due to COVID-19.

Projects conducted with Tate Topa Tribal School included:

- Marzano Research High Reliability Teacher program
 - HRT Level 1 Certification (12 educators total)
 - HRT Level 2 Certification (3 educators in Grant Year Three; 7 educators total))

Projects conducted with Warwick Public School included:

- NESC-facilitated weekly instructional coaching (English Language Arts; 10 educators)

Additional successes:

- New school/agency/business partnerships established through project implementation

NYCP Project Director, Erin Lacina
Erin.Lacina@nescnd.org, 888-701-NESC (6372)