Pastor: The Lord be with you.
People: And also with you.

Introit: Sing Out a Joyful Song in Praise
Prelude

Call to Worship (from Isaiah 55)
Liturgist: Seek the Lord while he may be found and call upon him while he is near People: Let all return to the Lord that he may have mercy on us.
Liturgist: For my thoughts are not your thoughts nor are your ways my ways, says the Lord.
People: For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways.
All: So let us worship the Lord who will abundantly pardon us and renew us!

Hymn: All Creatures of Our God and King w. 1-4, & 6

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession

Holy and merciful God, in your presence we confess our sinfulness, our shortcomings, and our offenses against you.
You alone know how often we have sinned
in wandering from your ways,
in wasting your gifts,
in forgetting your love.
By your loving mercy, help us to live in your light,
and abide in your ways,
for the sake of Jesus Christ our Savior.
Hear now our silent prayers....

Sometimes called "The Canticle of the Sun," this cosmic roll call allows human beings to give voice to all creation. One of the earliest religious poems in the Italian language, it is made even more expansive by this broad, repetitive melody with interspersed "Alleluias."

5 And you, most gentle sister death,
waiting to hush our final breath:
Alleluia! Alleluia!
Since Christ our light has pierced your gloom,
fair is the night that leads us home.
Sing praises! Alleluia!

*6 O sisters, brothers, take your part,
and worship God with humble heart.

All creatures, bless the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, Three in One!
Sing praises! Alleluia!

The chromatic musical style of this anonymous short hymn suggests that it probably dates from the early 20th century. It also seems to owe much of its popularity to radio broadcasts and recordings as well as to evangelistic meetings and singing conventions of that era.
