

CATHOLIC RESOURCES FOR DAILY USE

Do you want to incorporate more prayer into your life? Are you interested in learning more about your Catholic faith? There are many accessible ways to begin!

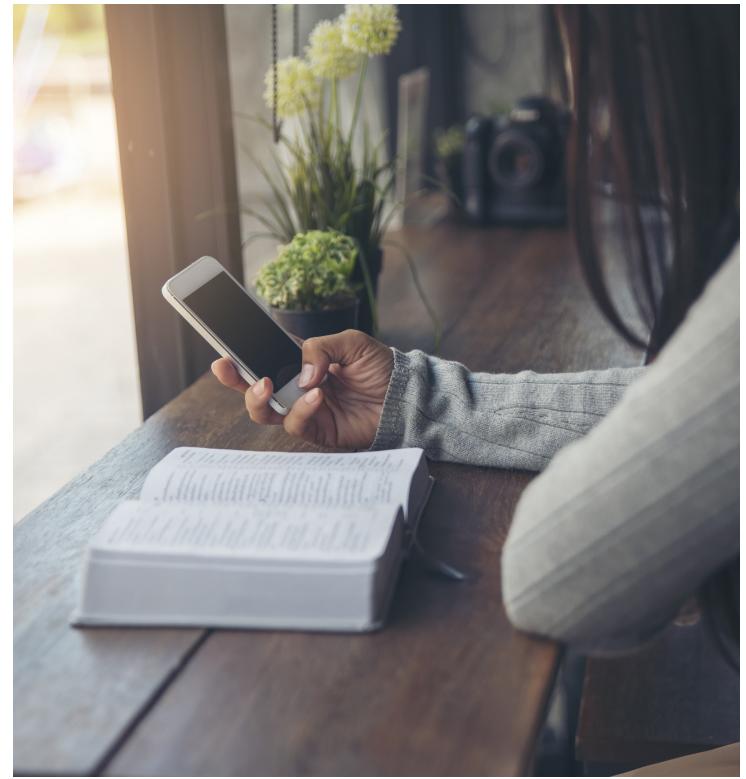

Below you will find available products in a variety of formats. Some are free, some are subscriptions, some are email, others are apps, and some are in print.

Here's a great place to begin:

CATHOLIC APPTITUDE

www.catholicapptitude.org

Catholic Apptitude: A Testament to Digital Ministry is recommended by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops as well as Vatican Insider. The website has recommendations of Catholic apps (including Catholic radio and TV), eBooks, recordings, podcasts, social media, and more!

LIVING WITH CHRIST

www.livingwithchrist.us

App or hard copy, daily readings, reflections, saint of the day, prayers, and articles.

MORNING OFFERING

www.catholiccompany.com

Free daily email includes meditation of the day, daily readings, saint of the day, Liturgy of the Hours, and more.

THE WORD AMONG US

www.wau.org/subscribe

Hard copy, app, digital, and web edition.

DAILY GOSPEL REFLECTIONS

www.dailycatholicgospel.com/sign-up-daily-gospel

Reflections from Bishop Robert Barron, sent from Word on Fire and delivered to your email inbox for free.

iBREVIARY

www.ibreviary.org/en

Hard copy and free app, includes Missal, readings, prayers, Rites, Liturgy of the Hours, and more.

(Note: Unlike Laudate, the iBreviary English translation of the Liturgy of the Hours is used by the Catholic Church. Therefore, it is preferred over Laudate for communal prayer. The iBreviary app is used by parishioners joining the friars for Morning Prayer and Evening Prayer at Good Shepherd.)

MAGNIFICAT

www.catholiccompany.com

Monthly hard copy and digital version as an app.

LAUDATE

Free app, very comprehensive, includes daily readings, Liturgy of the Hours, saint of the day, Catechism of the Catholic Church, prayers, EWTN, Vatican documents, and more.

(Note: The Laudate translation of the Liturgy of the Hours is devotional, whereas iBreviary is the Catholic Church's English translation of the Liturgy of the Hours.)
