Contemplative Prayer: Finding a Natural Icon, Maria Harris, "Women and Teaching"

"For the creation waits with eager longing for the revealing of the children of God." Romans 8:19
Choose something from the natural world to focus your attention/intention.
Ask this new companion...

Where have you been?

How did you get here?

Who has touched you?

Then ask about their inner life...

Ask about their vulnerability, tenderness, despair, and relationship with others.

What does this companion wish to tell you? What do you hear about God?

Gratitude Challenge, now to Thanksgiving

Once a day, name something you are thankful for.

Once a week, express your gratitude through words or action.

New Start Time for Prelude Music – 9:55 AM

During lockdown it became the custom to begin the worship service at 10AM. This included the pre-recorded prelude music. When we returned to the building for worship this custom continued as we were accommodating our remote congregation.

On Sunday, November 27, we will begin the prelude music before the service – around 9:55 AM – with the intention of finishing as close to 10AM as possible for the welcome.

If you attend remotely and value the real-time simultaneous community experience, please adjust your schedule accordingly. For those watching the rebroadcast, this should not affect your worship experience. Thank you for your flexibility.

Loving Our Neighbor: Masking

Masking is strongly encouraged. Masks are worn by those serving people face-to-face in close proximity - for example, hospitality, ushers, greeters, Sunday School teachers, and Eucharistic ministers. Masks may be taken off at the lectern, altar, or presider chairs. Unvaccinated persons and those immunocompromised are especially encouraged to wear masks indoors - particularly when in a small room with minimal air circulation.

SPIRITUAL GROWTH

You are invited to walk on Sacred Ground – Beginning in January 2023

Sacred Ground is a dialogue series on race, grounded in faith. Small groups are invited to walk through chapters of America's history of race and racism, while weaving in threads of family story, economic class, and political and regional identity. The 11-part series is built around a powerful online curriculum of documentary films and readings that focus on Indigenous, Black, Latino, and Asian/Pacific American histories as they intersect with European American histories. We will be offering this course on Zoom from January through May 2023 as a joint project between St. Mark's and St. George's, Laguna Hills. Meetings will be held every other Tuesday evening, beginning on January 3. Space is limited. An interest list is forming now. Please contact Rev. Keith Yamamoto or Kimberly Cortner for more information or go to <https://www.episcopalchurch.org/sacred-ground/>.

Inquiry and Membership Class

If you are interested or have questions about how to become a member of St. Mark's Episcopal Church, please join us for Sundays in Advent – November 27, December 4, 11, and 18, at 9AM in classroom 16 in the parish hall. We will be using the book "Walk in Love: Episcopal Beliefs & Practices" by Scott Gunn & Melody Wilson Shobe. This class is open to those who have questions for a friend, want a refresher course, are deconstructing their faith, interesting in a safe space to share their spiritual journey.

Collecting Data for 2022 Reports: Attention Church Ministry Leaders

Church ministry leaders, we are needing end of the year data for 2022 to complete the Parish Annual Meeting report and for the Parochial report which is submitted to the National Church via the Diocese.

Please be aware of the following guidelines for reporting:

Number of volunteers involved; number of new volunteers this year (2022); and number of people served per month - all totals may be estimated.

Does the congregation donate space for this ministry? Yes or no.

Does the congregation make financial or in-kind donations for programs provided by others?

Also, please let us know who the active participants are in your church ministry. St. Mark's is asked to report how many active participants there are in each of the following age groups: Children (0-12), Youth (13-17), Young adults (18-34), Middle adults (25-64), and Senior adults (65 and better). Because we don't want to double-count and people are members of more than one ministry, it will be helpful to have names. The office will sort/count for the parochial report. A person's age will not be disclosed.
