Lent Meditation on Dirt: Week 5 "Remember that you are Dust"

For the fifth week of Lent, we revisit the words of imposition from Ash Wednesday, "Remember that you are dust and to dust you shall return." These words echo Genesis when "God formed Adam from the dust of the ground."

Consider this an invitation to use mortality as a spiritual tool and as a practical motivator. Make a plan to do or review the thing that has been put off for "tomorrow" - life insurance, estate plan, organ donation, POLST, reconciliation, write a book, sort through those file boxes, or decide to throw them away.

If you are able, please consider drafting your own obituary. Here are some suggestions: photos, a recent one and an older favorite; military service; favorite church activities; and hobbies, travels, quirks, & passions. Also, please consider texting them to the rector. I will keep them and share them when the time comes.

Again, you are invited to engage as you are able. What is being revealed?

Two Online Diocesan Services Planned for Eastertide

Canon Susan Russell with participation by Taylor, Bishop Suffragan Diane M. Jardine Bruce and Canon to the Ordinary Melissa McCarthy and people from all over the diocese. The second service, on the second Sunday of Easter, April 11, will be a simple celebration of Holy Eucharist conducted by Taylor and Canon Kathy O'Connor. Both services will be livestreamed and available for viewing on demand on the diocese's Facebook page and YouTube channel.

The St. Mark's Commission for Racial Justice and Equity

VOICES FOR RECONCILIATION - Page Turners – New book study group

In response to the racial unrest that occurred in 2020, St. Mark's began work last Fall for the formation of the above-mentioned Commission. To date, the Planning Committee has established Vision and Mission Statements, and soon we will complete our Objectives and Activities. However, to get a jump start on our proposed Activities, a new Zoom-format book study group will begin soon. Our first book will be Caste by Isabel Wilkerson. We will meet every two weeks beginning Tuesday, March 9 from 6:30pm to 8:00pm and will continue through until May 25 (will skip Apr 6). Discussion leaders for this book will be John and Andrea Flasher. If this time is inconvenient for you, it is our hope that you will purchase Caste and study with us at your leisure. There are no experts here, so we will all be reading, learning and hopefully growing together. We will need your email address to send Zoom ID information. For more information regarding Page Turners or the new Commission, please contact Andrea Flasher at racialjustice@stmarks-upland.org.

Breakfast Bagging 2.0

All are encouraged to support this ministry. You can supply items for the bags or donate to the fund mailing a check to St Mark's marked Breakfast Bags in the memo line. For further information on what items are requested each month, please contact Rosalyn Foster at breakfastbaggers@stmarks-upland.org
