COVID PROTOCOLS FOR SUNDAY WORSHIP

Updated Mask Protocol for St. Mark's (July 18, 2021) Per the advice of Dr. Jim Brown... Because fully vaccinated people can transmit/spread the COVID Delta variant to others, it is recommended that unvaccinated individuals participate in church online/inspirit or sit in the northern pews with masks and social distancing.

It is respectfully requested that parishioners continue to wear a mask even if fully vaccinated when attending church in-person until further notice.

Social distancing: The north side of the church is reserved for those who wish to maintain social distance seating for whatever reason. No judgement given or reasons needed. Please know that this arrangement is only temporary. If this arrangement results in people not being able to sit in their "usual" seats, we will appreciate everyone's patience and flexibility.

For the "peace exchange" during worship, everyone's space and sensitivities should be respected. If someone offers their elbow, fist, or a peace sign, please respond appropriately. Do NOT assume physical affection. The peace of Christ is offered and given with enthusiastic consent.

Since children under age 12 cannot yet be vaccinated, all direct physical contact with young children should be avoided; elbow bumps are fine, but no hugs or handshakes.

Restrooms: Out of respect to those who are not able to receive the vaccination and in order to maintain physical distancing in the restrooms, we ask that only one person or household use the restroom at a time.

Hospitality: We offer a limited in-person coffee hour in the Parish Hall. To reduce multiple handling of shared objects such as the coffee urn, hot water dispenser, and serving utensils, please let the hospitality host serve you.

SPIRITUAL GROWTH & FELLOWSHIP

OUTREACH

St. Mark's and the Haiti Partnership

Parishioner Lisa Drew has written a song, We Must Be Here for a Reason, which will be our anthem on Sunday, August 1, in honor of our 22-year Haiti partnership. It seems like a good opportunity for an historical review:

1970s: The National Association of Episcopal Schools asks Episcopal schools in the U.S. to partner with Episcopal schools in Haiti for support, friendship, and collaboration. Because of the extreme lack of opportunities for education in Haiti, the Episcopal Church in Haiti at its inception in 1860 founded many rural churches, each one of which also served as a school. At the present day, there are more than 250 rural Episcopal schools in Haiti, educating more children than are educated by the government, and there are about 70 school partnerships like St. Mark's'.

1990s: After the fall of the notorious "Baby Doc" Duvalier in the late 1980s, a period of political instability in the early 90s means that establishing new partnerships is difficult.

1999: Roger Bowen, National Association of Episcopal Schools Haiti partnership coordinator long active in partnerships, invites parishioner Serena Beeks to go along on a trip with two high school students, testing the waters for possibly resuming student travel. She comes back with stories and pictures and a commitment to Haiti.

2000: Interim Head of St. Mark's School Sally Monastiere encourages participation in the Partnership Program and the offering from the 6th-7th-8th grade Christmas Eucharist is designated by the students to establish a Haiti partnership.

2001: St. Mark's is assigned by the Diocese of Haiti to St. Andre, Trianon, the first church established in that region by Bishop James Holly in 1861, currently celebrating its 160th year as a church and school. Serena is by now making a couple of trips each year, escorting new partners, and visits St. Andre's, perched on a cliff above the main highway, Rt. National 3, through the center of Haiti, at the time a dirt road. The Principal, Louis Fleuristal, expresses a wish for a wall so that children don't tumble into the road.

2002: Through student fundraising and donations, St. Mark's assists with a wall and then over the years goes on to help with a 4-classroom school building and participation in a local effort to bring running water from a spring several miles away through a village and several farms to the school, with water stations along the way.

2004: Kathy Walker becomes the first other St. Mark's parishioner to visit St. Andre. She comes back with stories and pictures and a commitment to Haiti.

2008: The first group from St. Mark's church and school visits Haiti -- School parents Betsy Mog and Karri Backer, parishioners Edwina Golightly, Kathy Walker, and Serena Beeks, and friend Julie Beals, visiting on behalf of another school considering a partnership. All come back with stories and pictures and a commitment to Haiti. Karri and Julie go to seminary and become ordained Episcopal priests. Cause and effect? Who can say?

2009: The combined church/school visits continue, with Guenivere Vinnedge in the 2009 group becoming the first St. Mark's teacher to visit. Eventually, St. Mark's teachers and clergy visiting Haiti on annual trips will include the Rev. Lee Harris, Denise Gideon, Robert Cunningham, the Rev. Keith Yamamoto, Elizabeth Selk, Mark Ravelli, and more than 20 parishioners and school parents. They ALL come back with...you know the rest.

2010: The January earthquake devastates Port-au-Prince, Leogane, and much of the surrounding area. The old 3-room classroom at St. Andre is damaged beyond repair, as is the principal's house. St. Mark's helps to support a new school building and the building of a new house for the principal.

2012: A group from Genesis Church in Upland joins the St. Mark's group on the annual visit and we become co-partners.

2013: A chaplain from another school joins our group along with her middle-school daughter, who is such a superb traveler that we resolve to start bringing students.

2014: The first four St. Mark's students travel: Brooke Fakhoury, Carson Waddell, Abby Nurredine, and Luke Nurredine. More than a dozen students and a few adult former students will subsequently make the trip, the most recent being Aiyana Harris in 2019.

2020: A combination of the Covid outbreak and political unrest makes travel impossible. We pray for an end to both. Our Haitian friends are suffering.

Over the past 20+ years, in addition to support for teacher salaries and 8th grade class gifts for new uniforms for the students, St. Mark's has under Guen Vinnedge's leadership participated in a "Goats and Gardens" venture to improve family economic stability. Teacher training programs through Redlands University spearheaded by Denise Gideon and participation in Anseye pou Haiti ("Teach for Haiti," similar to "Teach for America") have brought more strength to the program at St. Andre. Denise has also founded a nonprofit, For A Reason, which provides scholarships and accompaniment for students in Haiti, supporting several of our St. Andre students to go on to secondary school and university or professional schools.

Is there a trip to Haiti in your future? You have many new friends waiting to meet you. Stay tuned, and as soon as travel is possible, we'll be on our way. Meanwhile, please ask Guen, Kathy, Serena, Denise, or any of our travelers about anything you have questions about. Please also consider supporting the Haiti fund at St. Mark's (just write "Haiti Fund" in the memo line of a check to the church. Every penny goes to Haiti to help keep St. Andre's open for children who would not otherwise have an opportunity for an education, and to help our Haitian friends make St. Andre's the best school it can be.

VISION and MISSION STATEMENTS... We want your help!

St. Mark's—our clergy and vestry—is working on crafting new Vision and Mission statements, and we need your ideas!

A Vision Statement describes the ideal church we want to be. A Mission Statement describes what we want to do with the gifts that we have as a parish. Here are working drafts of the two new statements.

Our VISION for St. Mark's is of a community of grace, eagerly spreading God's word and extending Jesus' love to all, as we joyfully worship, both in person and in spirit, and generously reach out to our neighbors, helping anyone in need.

We make it our MISSION to be a place where love, joy, and hope abound. To do this we invite all persons, in whatever circumstances, to worship with us, to receive holy communion, and to help us serve others. We give guidance to those of all ages who want a deeper knowledge of God and closer connection with Jesus. We encourage our members to care for the needs of the community and the world. We celebrate our diversity and strive to reconcile all persons and groups to God through Jesus Christ.

You can share your thoughts with us in several ways: 1) When you attend a Sunday service in-person during August, please see the two large posters in the narthex, and write your comments on the paper notes provided. 2) If you won't be attending Sunday services in-person during August, please see the attachments to the Good News and the Sunday Bulletin and send your comments by e-mail to juniorwarden@stmarks-upland.org. 3) Of course, you may also talk to either Kay Alexander, our senior warden, or Carol Morgan, our junior warden.

The more specific your comments are, the more help they will be to us. Tell us about certain words or phrases that you like or dislike. Let us know whether you think the statements are accurate and complete, whether you agree or disagree with anything. Your voice is very important to us. It would be great if we could have 100% participation from the congregation on this project. We really DO want to hear from YOU!

Carol Morgan, Junior Warden
