We welcome home to St. Mark's Blane Abernathy, Rev Nathan Biornstad, and Barbara Harris. The family has requested no black attire. Please keep Tim, Christopher, Helen, Joanna, and Joan in your prayers.

COVID-19 Announcement

Dear St. Mark's Community,

While our parish policy is to maintain the confidentiality of an individual's health status, the wardens and I believe it is appropriate to share that I tested positive for COVID-19 on Wednesday morning. The exposure occurred during a family gathering on Easter Day, after our Sunday services.

Please be assured that I was not contagious during Holy Week or on Easter morning. Anyone who may have had close contact with me since then has been personally notified.

I'm grateful to report that my symptoms are mild. However, out of an abundance of caution and care for our community, I will not be attending this weekend's events—including the Celebration of Life for Chris Watson and the Second Sunday of Easter. The Rev. Sally will be in my place and Canon Beeks is preaching on Sunday.

Thank you for your understanding and your prayers. I look forward to rejoining you soon.

Peace,

Rev. Keith

A Grateful Celebration of Fellowship and Faith

We extend our heartfelt thanks to the Fellowship Ministry for their incredible dedication and joyful spirit in coordinating a series of unforgettable events this Easter season. From the creativity of Palm Sunday Sign Making and Easter Egg Decorating, to the warmth of the Wednesday Lenten Soup Supper, the excitement of The Great Easter Egg Hunt, and the shared joy of Easter Brunch—each gathering was a beautiful expression of faith, fellowship, and love.

We also want to express our sincere gratitude to all the parishioners who painted Easter eggs, donated candy, and brought delicious dishes to share. Your generosity and participation played a vital role in making this season so meaningful and memorable for everyone in our community.

Thank you for bringing the joy of Easter to life in such a special way!

Creation Care

On this Earth Day, we remember that creation is not just a backdrop to our lives—it is God's first cathedral, sacred ground that reflects divine beauty and abundance. Yet this sacred gift is groaning.

From polluted air to poisoned waters, from rising seas to scorched lands, the Earth bears the wounds of our neglect and exploitation.

And still, like resurrection itself, life pushes through—green shoots through cracked concrete, hope rising with every new act of care.

Just as Easter reminds us that death does not have the final word, Earth Day reminds us that renewal is possible—when we act in faith, with courage and love.

Earth Day is not just a celebration—it is a call.

A call to tend sacred ground.

A call to act with gritty hope.

A call to honor the Creator by protecting, restoring, and rightly sharing God's good creation.

May we respond with reverence, resolve, and resurrection-rooted love.

Lectio Divina: The Artist's Way, May 6

Join us on Tuesday, May 6, at 9AM as we use the Lectio Divina method to discuss The Artist's Way: A Spiritual Path to Higher Creativity by Julia Cameron.

"A revolutionary program for personal renewal, The Artist's Way will help get you back on track, rediscover your passions, and take the steps you need to change your life."

Join us for an in-person Lectio Divina Bible study every Tuesday, in Room 16 from 9:00 to 10:30AM. Lectio is a contemplative method of reading the Bible. We will listen to an upcoming Sunday gospel lesson three times from different versions of the Bible and respond to a reflection question after each reading. Our time includes introductions, check-in, a break, and open discussion.

These versions of "Jesus Christ is Risen Today," "He is Risen," and "Come, Ye Faithful" (the source for today's offertory anthem) are being played by an organist raised in this church, Alan Lewis, son of Pat and Claire Lewis. Alan as a teenager assisted with the installation of St. Mark's organ.

FALL 2025 INTERGENERATIONAL
NAPIER COURSES at the CLAREMONT COLLEGES

Monday, April 28 — 7:00 PM
Napier Common Room at Pilgrim Place

FACULTY PRESENTATIONS:

- Prof Sharda Umanath on Effective Learning Across the Lifespan
- Prof Susan Castagnetto on Feminist Ethics

Psychology 160: Effective Learning Across the Lifespan (Claremont McKenna)
Faculty: Sharda Umanath, sharda.umanath@cmc.edu
Monday 11:20 am - 12:15 pm

Our lives are spent learning, both formally and informally. Many seniors are concerned about memory loss and continuing to learn as they age. This intergenerational course is an in-depth look at what psychological science has discovered about how we learn best, how memory itself works, and how both change as we age. We will also delve into how intergenerational — the ways in which we think about our own learning processes and memories — can give insight into our learning. The basic goal of this course is for both undergrads and seniors to gain concrete evidence-based strategies and approaches for effective learning at their life.

Philosophy 151: Feminist Ethics (Claremont Colleges) Monday 2:45-4:00 pm.
Faculty: Susan Castagnetto, susan.castagnetto@claremontcolleges.edu

This course examines "feminist" and feminist ethical frameworks, considering how they contrast with some traditional ones, and their application to real-world social justice issues, such as reproductive justice and environmental justice. We will discuss care ethics, as well as other feminist approaches to ethics, considering whether ethical thinking and practice is gendered, how care and justice are related, and care as work. We will also examine relationships and interactions between different ethical issues, individualistic vs. systemic analyses of issues, and the importance of bringing lenses of identity, including gender, race, sexuality, disability, and class, to analysis and the development of strategies for change. Readings include works of feminist ethicists and writers across disciplines from a range of sources, both popular and scholarly.

An Easter Reflection

Sharing the Good News:

Did you ever have news that was so exciting, so important, so urgent, that you could not wait to share it? Imagine the spicebearing women who encounter the Angels at the empty tomb learning that it was all true - everything that Jesus had told them would happen had, indeed, happened. They rushed from what had been a moment of ritual grief and mourning and ran to tell the other followers of Jesus what they had witnessed.

Easter gives us a whole year's worth of joy and light and excitement to give thanks to God for the love and grace that has been poured into the world since the night of the Easter story. Let us share the good news of the Easter story with the world.

This is the time of year when we are joyful at all that God has done for us. We are joyful at the Good News, but also the ways in which our lives have been blessed by God. We are joyful at the love and grace that has been poured into the world since the night of the Easter story. Let us share the good news of the Easter story with the world.

2025 Estimate of Giving aka Pledge: Counting Blessings

Many thanks to the 63 individuals and households who registered their pledges for 2025. We have about 140 individuals and households on record. Please prayerfully consider how God has blessed your life and complete a 2025 pledge card. Your gracious contribution helps us as a community fund people like the rector, office administrator, bookkeeper, and music directors. They also keep the church buildings and grounds maintained and operational. It is not too late to make your pledge; and you may adjust your estimate of giving when circumstances change. Your 2025 pledge is greatly appreciated. Thank you.

Donating from IRA Accounts

Required minimum distributions (RMD) are the least amounts of money you must withdraw from your traditional IRA account each year, once you reach a certain age. If you make a qualified charitable contribution directly to St. Mark's for some or all of the RMD, that amount will not be taxed. Your financial advisor or IRA customer service can provide additional details on how to make this type of donation to St. Mark's.

Thank you for your generous gift.
No matter how, how much, or how often you give,
you make a difference. Your contribution is appreciated.
