

The Good News Christmas

Welcome Home

Welcome and Merry Christmas! It's okay if you only came to please Grandma or don't really know why you're here at all. You are welcome to whatever peace, hope, joy, or love you may find. Christmas can stir up a lot of feelings – and not just bright shiny ones, but also grief, nostalgia, longing, and loneliness. While some are spending time with loved ones, others are not – for all kinds of reasons. While some are dwelling with happy memories, others have sad or painful memories. There is space and room for all. We are glad you are here.

A Church Minute

The Christmas season is 12 days and culminates with the Epiphany of Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ on January 6. The texts assigned for Epiphany rounds out our Christmas story with the appearance of the star that calls out to those beyond the boundaries of God's original people. Epiphany (manifestation) truly becomes an apt depiction of the entire season, as this incarnation of God manifests God's very-self “among us” ALL.

Commemorations: Boxing Day, Hanukkah ends, Kwanzaa begins, St. Stephen, Deacon and Martyr, Dec 26; St. John, Apostle and Evangelist, Dec 27; Holy Innocents, Dec 28 Please pray for children in danger around the world; Holy Name, Jan 1 What are your names for Jesus, for God?; Epiphany, Jan 6.

Loving Our Neighbor: Masking

Masking is strongly encouraged. Masks are worn by those serving people face-to-face in close proximity—for example, hospitality hosts, ushers, greeters, Sunday School teachers, and Eucharistic ministers. Masks may be removed at the lectern, altar, or presiders' chairs. Unvaccinated persons and those who are immunocompromised are especially encouraged to wear masks indoors, particularly when in a small room with minimal air circulation.
