Honoring Marion Steese through Art, June 4

On Sunday, June 4th, 2023, the Fellowship Ministry will be hosting an enhanced Hospitality Hour, after the 10:00 am service, with the aim of commemorating and paying homage to the late Marion Steese for her invaluable contributions towards this Ministry. To this end, we cordially invite anyone who has participated in Marion's painting parties or has created a piece of art or craft, either individually or with their child, to kindly bring the item, clearly labeled with their name, to the Parish Hall by 10:00 am on June 4th. The items will be prominently displayed on the tables around the room, with a designated display table set aside as a tribute to Marion for her unwavering dedication to the St. Mark's Fellowship Ministry and the wider St. Mark's Parish community. As part of the display, we are considering including a beautiful scarf, a floral arrangement, a photograph of Marion, and a newspaper article detailing her life, as a testament to her immense legacy.
