From Fr. Konrad White, Rector Emeritus

Greetings from Savannah, Georgia.

I'm sure you have seen on the news the tornado devastation in Mississippi, especially that in Rolling Fork. Chapel of the Cross was my first church as rector. I received a picture of it from a friend of what was left of it. Needless to say, Janie and I are heartbroken.

However, living in California, you are not immune to disasters. Mother Nature rules!

Faithfully,

Konrad

Preparing the Church for Palm Sunday, Saturday, April 1

Help prepare the church for Palm Sunday. Decorate the church with palm branches or help with some light spring cleaning. Contact Christy Hyder at flowers@stmarks-upland.org.

Thank You Katherine Abdolhosseini, Business Manager and Controller

St. Mark's is grateful for the ministry and service of Katherine Abdolhosseini who stepped up to become the Business Manager and Controller for St. Mark's Episcopal Parish in 2018 when the position became open unexpectedly. Katherine was a member of the School Board and an active school parent. She ran her own business as a CPA and was a devoted parishioner.

Katherine has been instrumental in the application and forgiveness of crucial credits and loans, clean financial audits, and smooth transitions with former staff and families. Administration, employees, and volunteers knew how much Katherine cared and supported them, in particular, the staff and families of the preschool.

Contributions towards a Thank You gift check may be made to St. Mark's with "Katherine" in the memo line. Please join me in gratitude to Katherine for her service and leadership during these critical years in the life of St. Mark's.

WORSHIP

Palm Sunday: A Complex and Merry Liturgy

Liturgy of the Palms:

The service begins at the north entrance – the 16th Street sidewalk (at 10AM) or north porch (at 8AM). Those remaining seated in the sanctuary will be able to follow along via the wireless sound system.

After the Liturgy of the Palms (please see the Sunday Worship bulletin) we will go into the church. Please take your time so that everyone is safe. Those closest to the church may enter the church first. No need to follow the cross. Just go into the church. The donkey will be last and will go to the prayer chapel where Sunday School will be offered for children. Please note that a safe and careful procession from 16th Street may cause a slight delay in the start of the opening hymn. The Parking Guild will direct/stop traffic for a safe walking/processional experience. To those who only want to pick up a palm (Palms in Palms, Palm & Proceed ala Ash & Dash) their traffic route will be redirected to the south parking lot to avoid unnecessary vehicles crossing pedestrian paths. Extra palms will be available by the foot of the cross.

Stripping of the Altar:

Following the distribution of Holy Communion and before the postcommunion prayer aspects to Holy Week will be incorporated. The members of the Altar Guild strip the altar, lectern, and credence table. The clergy wash the altar. The reserved sacrament is carried to the prayer chapel and placed on the altar of repose. The wood cross is carried to the prayer garden. You may pound your nail in at anytime before Easter. These actions and spaces represent the events of Holy Week – Jesus' prayer in the garden, the disciples praying/sleeping, the stripping of Jesus at the crucifixion, and the preparation and laying of Jesus' body in the tomb. The stripping of the altar will only take place at the 10AM service.

to be grieved and agitated. Then he said to them, 'I am deeply grieved, even to death; remain here, and stay awake with me. (Matthew 26:36-38)

On Thursday, April 6, we keep vigil with Jesus throughout the night at the altar of repose in the chapel. It is a time for personal devotion and prayer. Sign up for a one-hour shift (or more) as an individual, a couple, or as a family. Shifts overlap and there should always be at least two persons present in the chapel. There will always be two men of the parish about the grounds to insure the safety of the participants. Those participating in the Vigil will receive a text or email reminder on Tuesday, April 4, listing the time chosen and the name and contact information of the person they are relieving and the person relieving them. Vigil participants are asked to park in the front of the church, to enter through the north doors and proceed directly to the chapel. For additional information, speak to Karin Brown.
