

The Healthy Families & Community Development Network

VOLUNTEERS

NEEDED

---

The Healthy Families & Community Development Network is looking for men to volunteer to work with students in one of three schools and/or communities of Annapolis, Old Mill and Meade.

The impact of your presence will:

- Provide students with positive male role models
- Provide schools with an extra set of eyes and ears to ensure a safe environment for learning
- Have a positive impact in three critical areas: academic performance, self-esteem & social behavior.

Weekly meetings will be held every Wednesday from 6:30 – 7:30 pm. Pass this information along to other men who may be interested in getting involved. Pass this information along to other men who may be interested in getting involved.
