

BERMUDA NATIONAL TRUST

Nominations for Annual Awards 2023

The awards are presented annually to recognise individuals, organisations, groups and schools that have worked to protect and promote appreciation for Bermuda's natural and cultural heritage, or whose work has enhanced Bermuda heritage awareness or understanding.

For the 2023 Awards, we will be accepting nominations for the period June 2022 - May 2023.

CATEGORIES:

Heritage Education Awards

Awarded to educational institutions (pre-school through college) for projects, programmes or initiatives that demonstrate conservation or other care of Bermuda's natural or cultural heritage.

Open to all educational groups, e.g. schools, home-schools and after-school clubs.

Cultural Heritage Awards

Awarded for positive impacts on Bermuda's cultural heritage through conservation, advocacy or education.

Nominations are invited in this category for protecting or advocating for cultural heritage; restorations or renovations of, or sensitive additions to, historic buildings; conservation of heritage sites or artefacts; projects or programmes promoting appreciation or awareness of cultural heritage; research that adds to our understanding of Bermuda's heritage.

Natural Heritage Awards

Awarded for positive impacts on Bermuda's natural heritage through conservation, advocacy or education.

Nominations are invited in this category for protecting, restoring or advocating for the natural environment; for inspiring appreciation and awareness of Bermuda's natural heritage; research that adds to our understanding of Bermuda's natural heritage.

Nominations are also invited in this category for the Outstanding Young Environmentalist Award, presented to a young person in recognition of their outstanding contribution to Bermuda's natural heritage for a considerable length of time and who has been consistent in this regard. This person must be less than 26 years old by 31 December of the year preceding the nomination.

Service to the Trust Awards

Nominations are invited for the Palmetto Award, the Bermuda National Trust's highest honour, awarded for outstanding service to the community in areas of concern to the Trust, or service to the Trust itself.
