

New Sanctuary Panel

Thursday, May 25th

6:30-8:30pm, St. Agnes Sanctuary, 1025 Masonic Ave. SF, CA 94117

Is your community wondering how to actually become a New Sanctuary Congregation? Join a panel of New Sanctuary Leaders to share their experiences. The panel will explain new sanctuary and the many ways that congregations can practice new sanctuary beyond housing individuals; Rev Penny Nixon, Senior Minister of Congregational Church of San Mateo, Natalie Terry, Director of the Ignatian Spiritual Life Center at St. Agnes Parish and Fr Richard Smith from St. John's Episcopal, both in San Francisco, will share their congregations' processes and Sarah Lee of the Interfaith Movement for Human Integrity will share from the organization's many years of experience with this work. The panel will answer your questions from navigating politically diverse constituencies to dealing with logistical details.

RSVP: <http://tinyurl.com/sanctuarysf5-25>

Cosponsored by Faith in Action Bay Area, the San Francisco Interfaith Council, the San Mateo Solidarity Network and Reform CA.