Friday, October 5, 2018 | 8:00 AM - 2:30 PM
UCLA Meyer & Renee Luskin Conference Center

Join our experts as we look to answer:

- How California can meet its demand for 3.5 million new housing units by 2025 through recently established state opportunity zones, insuring density along transportation hubs and reducing construction and approval times;
- How not meeting the state housing demand creates a $140 billion dollar shortfall for the state's economy;
- How disruptive technologies are solving regional transportation issues;
- And, how rapidly growing companies can address their employees housing needs.
