

February Newsletter

Room 4

Current Events

This year is flying by already and now it's February!

We said see you later to Julius in January who moved to Room 5. We welcomed Sammy and Wyatt from Room 1 and in the next couple of weeks we will welcome Nora from Room 2.

Over the last few weeks we started our new project of "All About Us." We had the opportunity to get to know Juliana, Ava, Julius, and Wren. Over the next few weeks we will have a chance to learn more about Garrett, Isabell, and Carly! Be on the look out for flyers and poster board to decorate at home.

A few parents mentioned they did not know you can make homemade play dough! Here is the recipe:

- 3 cups flour
- 1-1 1/2 cups salt
- 1/4 cup oil
- 1 cup water
- 1 tbsp food coloring

Birthdays:

Maia 2/2

Reminders:

- Wash hands when entering the classroom to minimize germs.
- Next SNL date is February 11th at KKLC at the Links from 4:30pm-10pm.
- We are closed February 20th for Professional development day.

One benefit of using your newsletter as a promotional tool is that you can reuse content from other marketing materials, such as press releases, market studies, and reports.

While your main goal of distributing a newsletter might be to sell your product or service, the key to a successful newsletter is making it useful to your readers.

A great way to add useful content to your newsletter is to develop and write your own articles, or include a calendar of upcoming events or a special offer that promotes a new product.

You can also research articles or find “filler” articles by accessing the World Wide Web. You can write about a variety of topics but try to keep your articles short.

Inside Story Headline

This story can fit 100-150 words.

The subject matter that appears in newsletters is virtually endless. You can include stories that focus on current technologies or innovations in your field.

You may also want to note business or economic trends, or make predictions for your customers or clients.

If the newsletter is distributed internally, you might comment upon new procedures or improvements to the business. Sales figures or earnings will show how

Organization

This would be a good place to insert a short paragraph about your organization. It might include the purpose of the organization, its mission, founding date, and a brief history. You could also include a brief list of the types of products, services, or programs your organization offers, the geographic area covered (for example, western U.S. or European markets), and a profile of the types of customers or members served.

Back Page Story Headline

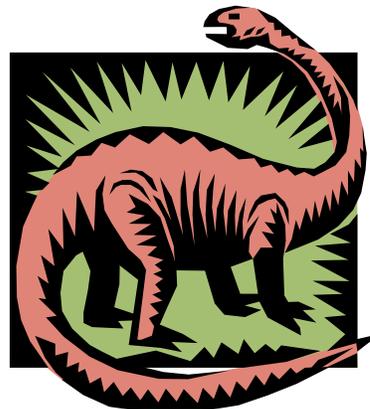

This story can fit 175-225 words.

If your newsletter is folded and mailed, this story will appear on the back. So, it's a good idea to make it easy to read at a glance.

A question and answer session is a good way to quickly capture the attention of readers. You can either compile questions that you've received since the last edition or you can summarize some generic questions that are frequently asked about your organization.

A listing of names and titles of managers in your organization is a good way to give your newsletter a personal touch. If your organization is small, you may want to list the names of all employees.
