Exciting opportunity to work in a growing, fast-paced small law office. We represent injured individuals in workers' compensation, personal injury and social security disability claims. This is an ideal position for a college student, a paralegal, someone currently enrolled in a paralegal program or someone considering a career as a paralegal or attorney.

This position provides an excellent opportunity to gain valuable experience learning all aspects of successfully handling a case, from speaking with clients and conducting research, assembling and maintaining files to trial preparation and case settlement.

This is a permanent position with significant opportunity for advancement for the right individual. The successful applicant must be able to speak Spanish. Hours flexible, but full-time preferred.
