

Found

BUSINESS OF THE MONTH FOUND

How much time and energy does your team dedicate to talent acquisition? Whether your company finds itself on the NASDAQ or you're a local mom & pop shop, the task of finding future employees is something we tend to avoid. But it does not have to be. Found CGP is your one stop shop to identifying possible hires, onboarding and placement for every vacant job you can imagine. With our personally developed closed network of candidates, we will tailor your company's needs with the right candidates who are just around the corner.

Retail, Automotive, Education, Government Services and everything in between our team of talent acquisition specialists and recruitment coordinators work personally with you to manage the project from start to finish. No automation, no generic emails, our team comes to you to learn as much as we can about your culture and position you wish to fill. Found CGP representatives will work as an extension of your team from start to finish to guarantee you find the best candidates possible. And the best part – no long-term contracts, no outrageous finders' fees, no generic job boards. Found CGP is committed to personalized partnerships which find the best hires, at a realistic rate in the shortest time frame possible. If your team is thinking of making a new hire, and you are ready to let someone else do the heavy lifting, we encourage you to check out Found CGP.