

The Chester Pierce Research Society

Feasibility and Acceptability of a Digitally-Enabled Community Health Worker Intervention for Patients with Heart Failure: A Single Arm Pilot Study

Jocelyn Carter, MD, MPH

DGIM Physician-Scientist and Internal Medicine Hospitalist / Albright Medicine Director, MGH Community CAre Transitions (C-CAT) Initiative
Director of Research Equity, Division of General Internal Medicine
Manager of Trainee Affairs, Center for Diversity and Inclusion
Elected Representative, MGH Executive Committee on Research
Department of Medicine, Massachusetts General Hospital
Assistant Professor of Medicine, Harvard Medical School

Wednesday, September 21, 2022 | 1:30 – 2:30 pm

To RSVP, click here

Read Jocelyn's full bio

The Chester Pierce Research Society (CPRS) is sponsored by the Massachusetts General Hospital Center for Diversity and Inclusion (CDI). CPRS is a speaker series named in honor of MGH's late Professor Emeritus in Psychiatry, Chester Pierce. Dr. Pierce was the first and most senior African-American physician-scientist at MGH. CPRS is designed to promote diversity and health equity by featuring the novel research of investigators to the MGH community.

To learn more about CPRS, click here for additional information.