

Centro Rendu Helps those Struggling in Seattle

Right now families are struggling more than ever with gaining access to basic needs such as food. As a way to help, Centro Rendu de San Vicente de Paul is holding a local food bank at the SVdP Kent Thrift Store. The food bank is open from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. every Thursday (until further notice).

They have already served roughly 250 families, giving out 340 bags of pre-packaged food! There are no requirements, just a name, date of birth, number of family members and city/zip code! THANK YOU Centro Rendu for your dedication towards helping others in need! #svdpseattle #svdp #centrorendu #community #kent #thriftstore #seattle #kingcounty #givingback #helpingothers #nonprofit #foodbank #servingfamilies

Centro Rendu staff taking social distancing options before distributing food to needy neighbors.

Food bags in shopping carts line up in our Kent thrift store prior to being distributed to needy neighbors.