

Judith Tulloch & Stephen Franchino 2018

Gwen Laster and Damon Banks 2020

Thistle 2021

ENJOY YOUR THIRD SUNDAY MUSIC AND SELF-GUIDED TOUR ON BANNERMAN ISLAND!

Take a self-guided tour of Bannerman Island and listen to one of the Hudson Valley's Finest Musicians and Performers.

Your Hudson River Adventure starts at the Beacon, NY waterfront onboard the Bannerman Castle Trust's Motor Vessel, the Estuary Steward. Your journey takes a half hour to get to Bannerman Island. Enjoy the views of the Hudson River on your way to the island.

The Tour includes:

Roundtrip cruise onboard The Estuary Steward to Bannerman Island.

A self guided tour of Bannerman Island.

(Optional: A short guided walking tour of Bannerman Island by a BCT Historian).

Performances by the Hudson Valley's finest performers and musicians.

RESERVATIONS ARE REQUIRED AS TICKETS SELL OUT QUICKLY

Tickets are $40 for Adults and $35 for Children

(11 years old and younger)

www.bannermancastle.org

Or Call

845-831-1001

THIRD SUNDAY MUSIC AND SELF GUIDED TOURS

THE COSTELLOS
This Night

Sunday, May 15th

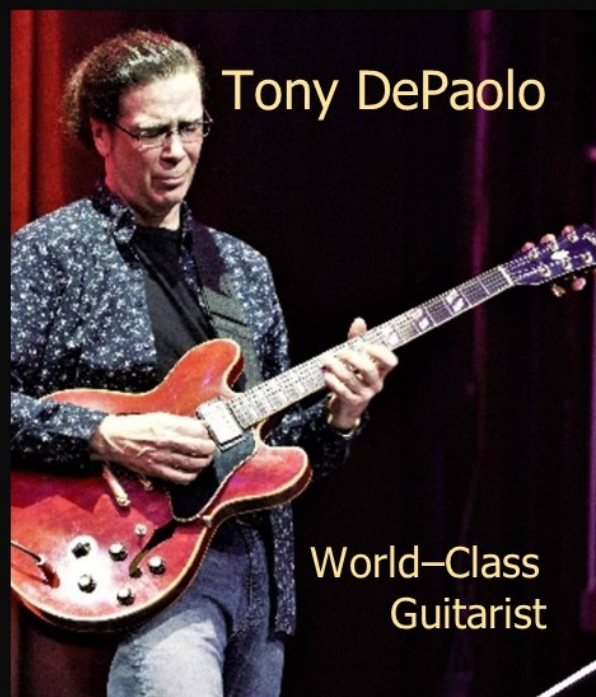

WILD IRISH ROSES

Sunday, June 20th

The Flash Company
Band

Sunday, July 17th

Tony DePaolo

World-Class
Guitarist

Sunday, August 21st

STORM KING DUO

Sunday, September 18th

GG and the Shades
Goldee Green

Sunday, October 16th

Third Sunday Music- May 15

THE COSTELLOS

Lynn Johansen met Bob Costello late in 1991. Lynn began her career playing in a variety of bands on the Jersey Shore. Bobby C honed his skills throughout the Hudson Valley, NY. They formed a band called The Bandits. A few years ago they re-branded themselves as The Costellos. Throughout the years band members have included: Danny McLoughlin (played bass and produced their first two records), Sean, 'The Minnow' McCarthy (drums) and Mark Pukmel (drums). Tony DeMarco has also sat in on drums and has acted as their sound and video man. The Costellos have made several TV appearances including a spot on CNBC's show 'America's Talking.' Radio wise. The Costellos are based out of Beacon, NY performing throughout the Northeast.

Third Sunday Music— June 19th

THE WILD IRISH ROSES

The Wild Irish Roses are a true family band. Mom, Dad and 8 kids. They live in New Paltz, NY Josie Rose (21) sings, plays banjo, mandolin, penny whistle, viola. Michael X. (dad) plays guitar. Kristi (mom) sings, plays bass. Hanna (23) plays bodhran. Evelyn (18) sings, plays concertina, accordion, viola. Penelope (16) sings, plays Guitar, and tambourine. Anghus (13) plays drums. Lazarus (11) plays harmonica .

Third Sunday Music, July 17

THE FLASH COMPANY

Celtic Folk Mix—Flash Company plays traditional and contemporary Irish and Celtic music ranging from the 18th century tunes of O'Carolan to the work of the Chieftains, Luka Bloom, Touchstone, Cathie Ryan, Solas, Pete St. John, and Cherish the Ladies, as well as original tunes in the Irish tradition.

Formed in 2016 and based in the Hudson Valley, the band is comprised of Eric Garrison on tenor banjo, octave mandolin bodhran and vocals; Jim Pospisil on mandolin, guitar, whistles, melodeon, and vocals; and Bryan Maloney on guitar and vocals.

Third Sunday Music, August 21st

TONY DePAOLO

WORLD CLASS GUITARIST

Guitarist Tony DePaolo has maintained a more than 30 year professional career recording and performing in New York City and the surrounding Hudson Valley and Tri-State area. Tony shared with such illustrious guitarists as Larry Carlton, Stanley Jordan and Steve Morse as well as world renowned pop-jazz band Spyra Gyra. Tony's recent recording career has featured him on recordings by vocalist Lindsey Webster, including her number 1 Billboard contemporary jazz hit, "You Change". Phil Parry's recent CD and upcoming Alex Burgnon CD and Tour. Tony has appeared in musical sequences of the HBO series "The Sopranos" and the Chaz Palmeyieri movie "Once More With Feeling". Tony's most recent CD features him in a trio setting with bassist Ira Coleman (Tony Williams, Herbie Hancock, Sting)

Third Sunday Music, September 18th

STORM KING DUO

A blend of pop, Brazilian (Contemporary and Bossa Nova) & bluesy jazz styles, with vocals, acoustic guitar, & flutes.

Judith and her band have warmed up the stage as an opening act for Michael McDonald, Maria Muldaur, Pete Seeger, Paul Winter, Patti Smith, Levon Helm, Lucy Kaplansky, Bo Diddley, Tom Chapin, and many others. Music that has been described as, "world-pop-fusion with a jazzy edge."

Third Sunday Music, October 16th

GOLDEE GREEN - GG AND THE SHADES

GOLDEE GREENE is an acclaimed international vocal artist, pianist and actress, who has worked across the US as well as Europe, Africa, Canada, the Caribbean. "Goldee Greene is captivating!" San Francisco Examiner. She is Juilliard trained in opera and diction at this world-class conservatory's Extension program, in New York. Goldee's signature versatile and resonant sound spans many musical genres including opera, jazz, Broadway, gospel, new music, and rock. She has performed with Billy Crystal, Pete Seeger, reggae sensation Bankie Banx, and the Urban Bush Women. Goldee is creative director of GG & The Shades, a popular fun/party band, which plays local venues throughout the Hudson Valley Region and New York City.

2022 Sponsor
Third Sunday Music and Selve-Guided Tours

Mark and Sue Adams - Mark Adams Greenhouses