

TRAININGS

THINK+change TRAININGS are in-person or online, small or large group, targeted educational opportunities on issues that directly impact people with IDD and those who care for and work with them.

★ Are you registered yet? ★

THINK+change, in partnership with Realm of Caring, presents
FINDING HEALTH

A Conference on the Intersection between Disability and Nutrition
July 28-29, 2018 Aurora, Colorado

FINDING HEALTH: The Intersection between Disability and Nutrition

July 28-29, 2018 -- Saturday and Sunday

Doubletree Denver - Aurora

Brought to you with support from

Quality of Life Sponsor

and Access Matters Sponsors

What's the conference about, you ask?

Finding Health will offer attendees education on the foundation of good nutrition, including dietary modifications and considering hemp supplements such as medical cannabis and CBD, as it relates to disability.

- Check out the annotated agenda here.
- Click here to read the bios of our Nutrition faculty and here for the bios of our Hemp/Cannabis faculty.

Never heard of Finding Health?!

Click here to see what last year's (different from but similar to this year's) conference looked like.

Money is available to support your attendance

Developmental Pathways is providing scholarships that cover $100 of the cost to attend. If you live in Arapahoe County, Adams County or Douglas County and have been diagnosed with an I/DD or care for someone with an I/DD, you could qualify. Contact Nicki Swafford at n.swafford@dpcolo.org or 303-360-6600 if you're interested in this discount.

Rocky Mountain Human Services is offering scholarships that cover 100% of the registration fee. If you live in the City or County of Denver and have an I/DD or care for a loved one with an I/DD, you could qualify. Contact Jean Solis at JSolis@thearcofaurora.org or 720-213-1420.

Do you care for someone on the Children's Extensive Services Waiver? You can use Parent Education services through the CES Waiver to pay for your entire cost to attend. Contact Hanni Raley at hrale@thearcofaurora.org or 720-213-1420.

The disabilities some of this year's registrants are saying they are coming to learn about the intersection of with nutrition, including hemp/cannabis supplements, include:

- Autism spectrum disorder (ASD)
- Chronic pain
- Epilepsy
- Down syndrome
- Cerebral palsy
- Angelman syndrome
- Dementia
- Fetal alcohol spectrum disorder (FASD)
- Traumatic brain injury (TBI)