

TALKS

THINK+change TALKS are provocative, in-person or video shorts on topics of interest to, or emerging issues for, people with IDD and those who care for and work with them.

Higher Education and Students with Autism Spectrum Disorder Series

Hear Sam talk about what he and other students on the autism spectrum need from the higher education system to be successful. Use these TALKS to introduce a training you are hosting, or link to them in your newsletter or on your website. Or, if a 12-minute video that includes the content from all four of these works better for your training needs, contact Jean.

Thanks to arc Thrift Stores, Developmental Pathways, and The Arc of Aurora for sponsoring support of this series.

Conversation Series with...
Sam Jarris
a higher education student with Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD)

- Self Advocacy and Higher Education for Students with ASD
- Higher Education Instruction and Students with ASD
- Higher Education Administration and Students with ASD
- Social Side of Higher Education and Students with ASD

What's next? Living with Disability Series is slated for distribution this summer — look for it!

Your Opportunity

THINK+change will be producing TALKS on high functioning autism spectrum disorder and behavior, living with disability, and the special education pipeline to prison this year. Want to sponsor one of these series? Contact Jean – jsolis@thearcofaurora.org or 720.213.1420.

