

Applications Open:

UCSF Clinical Leadership Accelerator

The UCSF Clinical Leadership Accelerator (UCSF-CLA) Program gives faculty an opportunity to gain insights and skills to lead change and improve health care.

WHY PARTICIPATE

- Increase self-awareness and self-efficacy
- Make progress against leadership development goals
- Acquire skills to address complex issues and challenges
- Learn tools to effectively communicate and collaborate
- Gain a greater sense of community at UCSF
- The program is FREE for participants. Healthforce covers costs for trainings and materials.

ELIGIBILITY

All UCSF clinical faculty with 5 or more years of experience in a leadership role are eligible.

The program consists of two in-person training sessions, two hour-long webinar meetings, and 2-4 hours of pre-work.

In-person session dates:

- Thursday September 13, 2018, 9:00-5:00 p.m.
- Thursday November 15, 2018, 9:00-5:00 p.m.

Webinar dates will be scheduled to accommodate participant availability.

APPLY NOW

Faculty who can commit to attending both sessions are encouraged to apply here

<http://bit.ly/LeadershipAccelerator>

Deadline for applications is July 11, 2018.

"I found the program very helpful with navigating day-to-day interactions and approaching leadership training in a systematic way. It has helped me become a more successful leader."

Mustafa Arain, MD
Associate Professor of Medicine
Gastroenterology Division
University of California, San Francisco

LEARN MORE

Contact Tania Condon, Associate Director of Leadership

415-502-4344 | Tania.Condon@ucsf.edu

<http://bit.ly/LeadershipAccelerator>

or scan here:

