Noemi Cotto is the Social Work Supervisor for the Family Defense Practice at The Bronx Defenders. She received her Master's Degree in Social Work from Hunter College School of Social Work in 2011. Prior to joining The Bronx Defenders, Noemi was an adoption coordinator, was then promoted to social worker in the Treatment Family Foster Care division, and later became a family therapist focusing in the Brief Strategic Family Therapy evidence-based model. She taught abstinence and healthy relationships workshops for adolescents at the Horizon Juvenile Center in the Bronx, and at other community resource centers. Noemi was also a team captain and helped raised money for the United Jewish Association. At The Bronx Defenders, Noemi became a parent advocate supervisor within her first year, and was promoted to social work supervisor in her second year. Noemi earned her LMSW in Connecticut and holds a Student Intern Field Instructor (SIFI) Certificate from Fordham University, as well as a dual B.A. in Media and Communication and American Studies. Noemi is a passionate advocate for her clients and serves her community with pride.

Karen Leve is a Staff Attorney for the Family Defense Practice at The Bronx Defenders. She received her J.D. from Seton Hall Law School. Following graduation, she served as a law clerk to the Honorable Sallyanne Floria, Assignment Judge, Essex County in the Superior Court of New Jersey. While at Seton Hall, Karen participated in the Family Law Clinic, the Southern District of New York Representation in Mediation Practicum, and was named a Charles H. Revson Public Interest Fellow. She interned with the Catholic Charities of Newark Immigration Assistance Program, the New Jersey Institute for Social Justice, and New York Legal Assistance Group. Prior to law school, Karen earned her M.S.W. from the Silver School of Social Work at New York University. She holds a B.A. in International Development Studies from McGill University.
