

Sichot beyn Achayot: An Open Dialogue Between Diaspora and Israeli Sisters

Session 3: Conversations Between Conservative and Masorti Sisters

Sunday @ 1:00pm-
12.12.21 2:30pm ET

Alexis Silverman
IPP Kehilat Moreshet Avraham
(KMA), East Talpiot

Alexis Silverman grew up in New Jersey, where she and her family were very involved in a Conservative Synagogue including holding leadership positions in Women's League, Men's Club and USY. Upon graduating from the Joint Program between Columbia University and the Jewish Theological Seminary, Alexis made aliya to the Talpiot neighborhood of Jerusalem. She has three sons, aged 22 and working, aged 19 and in the army and aged 16 attending a pluralistic high school. She currently works at Yad Vashem in the International Relations Department.

Alexis has been a member and a leader in Kehilat Moreshet Avraham (KMA) in East Talpiot for 25 years. Most recently, she finished a four-year term as President. KMA is more than a synagogue for Alexis; it is where she has celebrated lifecycle events and life experiences, holidays and Shabbat and is part of a supportive multi-generational community and family.

