Debbi Kaner Goldich WLCJ International President

Debbi Kaner Goldich was born in Boston, Massachusetts and moved to the Philadelphia suburbs shortly after college graduation. She has undergraduate, graduate and post graduate degrees in Pediatric Nursing and practiced for 35 years before retiring. Debbi has been active in Jewish communal service since high school, when she was USY chapter present and NERUSY Region Secretary. She became active in Women's League for Conservative Judaism over 40 years ago and has served as International Vice President, International Torah Fund Chair, and Consultant, among many other positions. She currently serves as our Women's League International President.

In addition, Debbi serves on the Board of Trustees of the Jewish Theological Seminary, the Executive Committee of Neve Hanna, the Executive Committee of Mercaz, the Conference of Presidents of Major American Organizations, and is the WLCJ representative to the Jewish Council for Public Affairs (JCPA); she is also a member of her synagogue's Ritual Committee, as well as the Board of Advisors to the Ziegler School of Rabbinic Studies.

Debbi shares her time between Pennsylvania and Arizona and is an active member of a synagogue on each coast. She and her husband Bob have three sons, two daughters who came to them though love, and two grandchildren.
