

Sichot beyn Achayot: An Open Dialogue Between Diaspora and Israeli Sisters

Session 2: Davening as Conservative/ Masorti Women

Sunday @ 1:00pm-
11.14.21 2:30pm ET

Rabbi Debra Cantor
Congregation B'Nai Tikvoh
Bloomfield, CT

Rabbi Debra Cantor is the spiritual leader of Congregation B'nai Tikvoh-Sholom in Bloomfield, CT. Previously, she served as rabbi of the historic Kane Street Synagogue in Brooklyn, New York, and Congregation Tifereth Israel in Andover, Massachusetts.

A member of the first Jewish Theological Seminary Rabbinical School class to include women, Rabbi Cantor was ordained by JTS in 1988, where she was also awarded an MA. She graduated from Brandeis University cum laude with a BA in Near Eastern and Judaic Studies.

Rabbi Cantor loves to teach! Her classes are engaging and always laced with humor and insight. In 2017, Rabbi Cantor founded the Neshama Center for Lifelong Learning. Neshama invites people from all backgrounds to engage in inspiring, creative, joyful Jewish learning. Neshama is sponsored by B'nai Tikvoh-Sholom in collaboration with a range of community organizations, including the Mandell JCC, the Charter Oak Cultural Center, Hartford Seminary and others.
