

Debra Green

Debbi is the Vice-Chair of Consulting Services for Women's League for Conservative Judaism. She recently completed a term as an International Vice-President of WLCJ with Region Services as her primary portfolio. Debbi is currently a Women's League Consultant. She has held positions as Region President of the Central Great Lakes Region as well as President and Programming Vice President within her Sisterhood. Debbi also was a member of the Torah Fund Strategic Planning Committee, editorial committee member of Outlook, the WLCJ quarterly newsletter, and has held many and varied other positions. Attendance at the Women's League Leadership Institute has been of invaluable benefit to Debbi in all of these positions.

Debbi and her husband Alan are the proud parents of Scott and Michelle Green, and Amy Beth Green and Nevo Band, and the happy grandparents of Harrison, Jordan, Dahlia, and Roey. They live in Buffalo Grove, Illinois. When not busy with WLCJ activities Debbi enjoys reading, knitting, and baking.
