

ONE HOUR WEBINAR

PROVIDED BY CENTRAL JERSEY FAMILY HEALTH CONSORTIUM

Target Audience: Nurses and healthcare professionals working with families of infants

NURSING CONTINUING EDUCATION CREDITS WILL BE OFFERED

Reducing the Risk of Sudden Unexpected Infant Death

Speaker: Barbara M. Ostfeld PhD

Professor, Department of Pediatrics
Program Director, SIDS Center of New Jersey
Rutgers Robert Wood Johnson Medical School

Facilitator: Ariana Nuñez, MPH

JUNE 25, 2020 • 3PM

REGISTER TODAY

<https://attendee.gotowebinar.com/register/6917387597832741902>

LEARNING OUTCOME:

At the conclusion of the webinar, participants will self-report knowledge gain related to evidenced based strategies for reducing the risk of SIDS and other sleep-related infant deaths

Continuing Nursing Education: To receive a contact hour certificate, participants must view the entire webinar and complete the evaluation that will display at the end of the presentation. If you have any questions regarding your contact hour certificate, please email Ann Mruk, at amruk@cjfhc.org.

Accredited status does not imply endorsement by CJFHC, NJSNA or ANCC Commission on Accreditation of any commercial products discussed or displayed in conjunction with this program or any commercial products or services.

Central Jersey Family Health Consortium is approved as a provider of nursing continuing professional development by New Jersey State Nurses Association, an accredited approver by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation. Provider number P92-9/17-20. Provider approval is valid through September 30, 2020.

Disclosures: There is no commercial support. The planners of this learning activity and the speaker do not have any conflicts of interest to disclose. Disclosure forms were required and reviewed to assure no conflicts. The content of this presentation has been reviewed to assure that content is free of bias.