VENDOR APPLICATION

ABOUT THE MARKET

The Franklin County Public Library invites local artists, artisans, and crafters to submit applications for its HOLIDAY ARTS & CRAFTS MARKET on DECEMBER 1, 3P-9P. The market showcases locally handcrafted, one-of-a-kind wares. The evening of December 1 is Come Home to a Franklin County Christmas, which draws thousands of visitors to Downtown Rocky Mount every year. The library is open to the public during this festive event.

FEES & DEADLINES

The Holiday Arts & Crafts Market features locally made art, crafts, and handmade items. All creations are one-of-a-kind and handcrafted. No multi-level marketing, third party, or resell items are permitted.

The market is held indoors at the library. Each vendor will have a 6-foot x 20-inch folding table and two chairs. Space is limited, and we are unable to accommodate requests or preferences for table assignments. Additional space beyond the table area is not guaranteed. Vendors are responsible for all display materials and payment transactions.

The vendor application and table fee is $25. 100% of the fee will serve as a donation to the Friends of the FCPL; 100% of sales will go to the vendor. The fee is due upon submission of an application. Applications submitted without payment will not be considered until payment is received. Fees are accepted by cash (exact amount only) or by check payable to "Friends of the FCPL." The application form is printed on the next side. Vendor applications are due October 27. Notification will be made by November 3.
