

The COMMIT Foundation Announces Growth Strategy Including Promotion of Executive Director and Hiring of Two New Officers

- COMMIT is hiring a Chief Operating Officer and a Chief Development Officer
- COMMIT Executive Director named Chief Executive Officer

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE.

Bozeman, Montana, May 6, 2019 - The COMMIT Foundation (COMMIT) announced the latest move in the veteran service organization's growth strategy. Anne Mere Craig, Co-Founder and formerly Executive Director, has been promoted to Chief Executive Officer. And, in alignment with organizational growth, the Board of Directors is pleased to announce the creation and opening of two new positions - a Chief Operating Officer (COO) and a Chief Development Officer (CDO).

The COO and CDO positions are open for application immediately and will remain open until May 16. The COO is responsible for overseeing day-to-day administrative and operational functions of the business. The CDO is responsible for expanding and diversifying COMMIT's donor base, working closely with the CEO, COO and Board of Directors to build a multi-year development strategy.

Those interested in applying for the COO position should send a cover letter and resume to Charlie Bailey at charlie.bailey@commitfoundation.org. Those interested in applying for the CDO position should send a cover letter and resume to Maggie Collins at maggie@commitfoundation.org.

2018 was a year of tremendous growth for COMMIT. Having served almost 600 veterans and raising over $1M, the organization is realigning staff leadership to meet the demand for COMMIT services.

The COMMIT Foundation is a nonprofit, 501(c)(3) organization whose mission is to help exceptional American servicemembers and veterans into successful roles and careers post-service. COMMIT provides individualized, high touch transition services to post-9/11 US servicemembers and veterans, helping them identify their passions, build strong networks, and leverage their skills in civilian careers.
