

Name: Bhavya Arora

Schools: Washington University School of Law

Internship Company: Charter Communications

Where You're From: New York

Q: First off, why do you want to become a lawyer?

A. My ultimate goal after passing the bar is to do litigation; I fell in love with the trial aspect of the law when I did high school mock trial. During my undergraduate studies, I had the opportunity to work at a boutique firm that focused on litigation; this opportunity further solidified my love for the law. Working on building cases for trial doesn't feel like actual work, it's something that I genuinely enjoy doing; that's how I know I want to become a lawyer.

Q: Who or what has been a major influence or inspiration to you?

A. My dad has been my biggest influence in my journey. He is certainly the hardest-working person I know; my goal is to make him proud and eventually retire him.

Q: What do you hope to accomplish in your career?

A. My goal is to be well-known in the law community. I want to be known for being a genuinely kind person, but also an excellent litigator.

Q: What do you hope to gain from your 2023 Summer Internship?

A. I hope to build authentic connections with those I meet during the process of my internship.

Q: Just for fun, what's one song that you have completely memorized?

A. 2009 by Mac Miller

Q: Is there anything else you'd like us to know about yourself?

A. I like to consider myself a ping pong world champion, despite the fact that I am aggressively average at the game. I also love trying new food.