Q. - What appeals to you about becoming a lawyer?

A. – I have always had a passion for advocacy, reading, research, and writing. These interests, I discovered as early as middle school by participating in mock trial and model UN. During model UN, is when I discovered my fascination for international law which led me to law school. Ultimately, I am looking forward to an intellectually challenging career which will allow me to make a difference in the areas in which I am a part and give me the opportunity to be a forever learner.

Q. - Who has been a major influence or inspiration to you, and why?

A. – My parents have been, both, a major influence and an inspiration to me. They have shown me what it means to be humble, selfless, determined, and to live life with integrity. Thanks to their encouragement, guidance and passion for learning, I am where I am today.

Q. - What do you hope to accomplish in your career?

A. – I hope to master the nuances of legal research and writing, develop effective client communication skills, and gain experience in various areas of law to identify a potential specialization. Ultimately, I hope to have personal and professional growth in the legal field, which will reflect my commitment to leave a lasting impact on the community and area of law in which I participate.

Q. - What do you hope to gain from your 2024 Summer Internship?

A. - I hope to gain invaluable knowledge of a variety of areas of the law, to further help me decide where my future career path might lead. Furthermore, I am extremely excited to learn from and work with the immensely talented attorneys at Emerson Electric. Additionally, I am already grateful for the networking opportunities I have been offered from the ACC and look forward to more events and opportunities to meet attorneys this summer.

Q. - Just for fun, if you could only listen to one song for the rest of time - what would it be?

A. - I would have to pick: For Once In My Life by Stevie Wonder!

Q. - Is there anything else that you'd like for us to know about yourself?

A. – I am a proud first generation American with dual citizenship with the US and Brazil. I grew up in a bilingual home leaning Portuguese. Additionally, I am fluent in Spanish and German. I am a recent graduate from Saint Louis University with a BA in International Studies on the Pre-Law track and minors in Spanish, German and Foreign Service. I am a rising 2L at Saint Louis University School of Law, hoping to pursue a concentration in international and comparative law. Lastly, I am looking forward to starting work with Emerson Electric, thanks to the Association of Corporate Counsel!
