Q. - What appeals to you about becoming a lawyer?

A. – The creativity and opportunity you have as a lawyer to solve problems and help others.

Q. - Who has been a major influence or inspiration to you, and why?

A. - My mom is a major inspiration to me because of her unwavering strength, compassion, and determination. No matter what challenges life throws her way, she faces them with grace and resilience. She has taught me the importance of hard work, kindness, and standing up for what's right. Watching her overcome obstacles with courage has made me believe in my own ability to persevere and succeed.

Q. - What do you hope to accomplish in your career?

A. – I hope to contribute meaningfully to the legal field. I'm not entirely sure what area of law this will be in but I want my work to reflect a commitment to integrity, critical thinking. To provide representation to young aspiring black lawyers.

Q. - What do you hope to gain from your 2025 Summer Internship?

A. - During 2025 internship, I hope to gain practical experience with the legal principles that I learned this year I want to strengthen my research and writing skills, observe the dynamics of legal advocacy, and contribute meaningfully to ongoing matters. Most importantly, I hope to learn from experienced attorneys, refine my professional judgment, and build the confidence necessary to navigate the legal field with purpose.

Q. - Just for fun, if you could only listen to one song for the rest of time - what would it be?

A. Schoolin life by Beyonce

Q. - Is there anything else that you'd like for us to know about yourself?

A. – I appreciate the ACC for this opportunity and for helping bridge the gap with unrepresented law students and corporate jobs.
